Notes for Patrick Duffield Simpson

CLOSE-UP: Patrick retired from IBM an Advisory Information Developer on October 31, 1993. He graduated from Sidney Central High School in 1956 and attended Hartwick College in Oneonta, NY on a NY State Regents scholarship. He married Anne Roberta Budine, from Otego, NY on March 26, 1960, and they had four children; David, Patricia, Diana, and Thomas. He graduated from a 5-year toolmaker apprenticeship from Bendix Corp. in Sidney in 1967 and went to work for IBM in Endicott, NY.

On 24 Mar 1974, Patrick became a Christian in Chicago's Moody Church. Pastor David Cooper, from Belair Baptist Church, Bowie, Maryland, baptized him on 8 Sep 1974.

As IBMers, they lived in: Bowie, MD; Boca Raton, FL; Raleigh, NC; Poughkeepsie, NY; and back to Raleigh, NC where Patrick retired. Pat and Anne took a nine-month trip around the world in 1994 and he wrote two books about it: Wheelchair Around the World and Wheelchair Down Under. He also wrote Whither Thou Goest, about his ancestors who went west in 1878 in a wagon train.

Anne died in 2006 and Patrick remarried in 2008 to Betsy Virginia Purcell, a fellow worshipper at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Raleigh, NC. They honeymooned with a Christian tour group in Israel. After Patrick sold his house and Betsy left her residence at Whitaker Glen, they moved into Raleigh's Wedgwood Apartments.

Notes for Anne Roberta Budine

QUOTATIONS: Written by her mother (Anne) to her father (Gerdon):

"May 1, 1941 - Anne Roberta - born in the "former parlor" bedroom - with Aunt Minnie as nurse - staying in bed for 10 days - laying flat the 7th day so things would 'go back in place' ? - and the beautiful bouquet of apple blossoms you picked. - I remember later going to a movie on a very rare night out - and being called home by Grandma & Aunt Min - cause Anne held her breath?

[Written later...] "Little Oscar the duck - who ran so fast after the kids that he had 'yellow wheels?' & how he followed them everywhere - till a fox took him one night while we were milking?"

OBITUARY: (Raleigh News & Observer, Nov 3 2006) Anne Budine Simpson, 65, passed away into the presence of the Lord on Monday, October 30, 2006, at Wake Medical Center, Raleigh, N.C.

Anne was born in Walton, NY on May 1, 1941 to the late Gerdon and Anne Budine. She was a graduate of Walton High School and lived in Sidney, NY until 1967. In 1993, she retired as cafeteria manager for Durham Life Insurance in Raleigh. She was baptized by Pastor David Cooper on Sep 8, 1974 at Belair Baptist Church in Bowie, MD and was a very strong Christian. Over the years, she taught children's Sunday school and arranged countless church dinners, using her renowned cooking talents. In 2004, she received WTVD ABC 11's Jefferson Award Certificate of Recognition for her hard work and commitment to improving the quality of life in her community. At her passing she was co-leader of the education team and moderator of the board of deacons at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Raleigh.

In 1979, she joined the Auxiliary of The Gideons International, and served for many years in nearly every office, including Auxiliary President of the Raleigh North camp.

Anne had a legion of friends, and loved them all. She was deeply missed by her family and by the many people whose lives she'd touched over the years. She was everyone's best friend, confidante, and "other Mom"-always willing to lend her undivided attention and sympathetic ear. She was an inspiration to all who knew her.

A memorial service was held at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 301 East Whitaker Mill Road, Raleigh, NC at 1:00 p.m. Saturday, November 4, 2006, following which the family received friends.

Her husband of 46 years, Patrick Simpson, and three children; David Simpson and Thomas Simpson, from Raleigh; and Diana Feaver, from Mahopac, NY, survive her. Her daughter, Patricia Simpson, predeceased her in 2001. Anne also left behind three sisters, Lucille Dewey and Kay King of Sidney Center, NY and Marian Striesse of Hartwick, NY; and two brothers, Robert Budine of Davenport, NY and John Budine of Oneonta, NY. One of her greatest pleasures was being grandmother to her five grandchildren: Michael, Krystal, Alexis, Raven and Charlie.

Notes for Bessie (Betsy) Virginia Purcell

Named after her grandmother, Mary Elizabeth (Bessie) Walton.

Notes for Alma Henderson Duffield

OBITUARY: Alma Duffield Ready, 95, died after a short illness on Thursday, May 29, 2003 at Holy Cross Hospital in Nogales, Arizona, where she has been a patient for the last few years.

Alma, an only child, was born in Cedarville, New Jersey on December 17, 1907 to Philip and Ada (Henderson) Duffield. At the age of 14 she was already an accomplished organist and once played for the church choir when it was invited to sing on the air 120 miles away at a Philadelphia radio station. Later, she graduated from New Jersey State College at Glassboro, where she studied to be a teacher and played the beautiful big concert piano at morning assemblies and for the Glee Club.

Years later, After the breakup of her first three marriages, Alma and her fourth (and last) husband Teddy moved to Arizona. She immediately fell in love with the state. She said, "To me the desert was a dream come true." After moving from Willcox to Oracle to Continental, they wound up in Tucson where both got jobs at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base. By now they were three'son Johnny had been born in 1946. Totally fascinated with the west, the family began exploring its beauty, venturing farther and farther on weekends and holidays. Johnny grew up as a prop in front of hundreds of photos. Eventually their long summer excursions became the pivot around which their lives revolved. Alma began carrying a camera and taking notes. She joined the Tucson Camera Club and began winning local photo contests.

Her first sale was to Arizona Highways Magazine. That article was followed by another and another and then she was commissioned to do several pieces for a forthcoming issue featuring Santa Cruz County. She also began a series of picture pages for the Arizona Republic's Sunday Magazine, "Days and Ways."

While trying to put together a portfolio of pictures of Santa Cruz County, which the family had explored so thoroughly, she learned from a Nogales librarian that, much to her surprise, the county's history had never been written. So, "to do the job right," she wrote, "I needed to live in Santa Cruz County!" By now, she had discovered that she liked to write.

In 1967 she leased an apartment in Nogales for a year and joined the local historical society. By now, son Johnny had graduated from high school in Tucson and Ted had no objections to her move. She also began a new job as Southern Arizona correspondent for the Arizona Republic, the state's largest newspaper. At the age of sixty she had started a new career, and continued writing for the paper for 14 years, approximately from 1967-1981.

It took her six years to finish the Santa Cruz County history, "Open Range and Hidden Silver." She also wrote "Calabasas: A True Story," "A Very Small Place: Arizona's Santa Cruz County Book List," and wrote and edited the "Nogales Arizona 1880-1980 Centennial Anniversary" book. All of them are available at the Pimeria Alta Historical Society, located in their museum on 136 North Grand Avenue in Nogales.

She attended classes in photography and conversational Spanish and became very active in the Pimeria Alta Historical Society. As Society president, she soon realized it needed a great deal of space for a museum. After learning that the old Nogales Town Hall was available, she ramrodded a successful effort to move in. Today it occupies the entire bottom floor. For two years she did a full-page photo feature each month for the local "Nogales International" newspaper.

Alma had many friends, and was a lover of art, music, poetry, and everything Arizona. She will be deeply missed by her family and the many people whose lives she has touched over the years. About Nogales she wrote: "I have been very happy here. The country is beautiful, the 'Border Culture' fascinating, the people friendly and the climate near-perfect.

This is where I feel at home."

They say that home is where the heart is and Alma's heart indeed found a home in Nogales.

A memorial service will be held at 4:00 pm Saturday, June 21 at the Pimeria Alta Historical Society, located in their museum on 136 North Grand Avenue in Nogales.

Alma was preceded in death by her husband Ted, who passed away in 1986, and her son, James E. Simpson, who died in 1968. She is survived by three sons: Donald C. Flowers, of Novi, Michigan; Patrick D. Simpson, of Raleigh, North Carolina; and Johnny Ready, of Snellville, Georgia. She also leaves behind several grandchildren and great-grandchildren as well as a host of friends all over Arizona.

Memorials may be made to the Pimeria Alta Historical Society, 136 North Grand Avenue, P.O. Box 2281, Nogales, Arizona 85628 or to Gideons International, 2900 Lebanon Road, P.O. Box 140800, Nashville, TN 37214-0800.

ADDITIONAL NOTES: According to her son, Patrick, Alma was a freelance writer. She married Charles Cully Flowers on December 26, 1926 and had one son, Donald C. Flowers, born January, 1928. Donald is married to Geraldine Mae Halleen and lives in the Detroit area. After that, Alma married Samuel Walton in 1934 in a Philadelphia suburb (there were no children). They separated in 1937 at age 29. She married Raymond Simpson in 1937 and had 2 sons, Patrick and James, before her divorce in 1945. In July of 1946, she married John (Teddy) Ready and had one son John. Teddy died in March 1986.

Lucy Jane (Finch) Constable.

Notes for Gerdon Blair Budine

CLOSE-UP: Married by Rev. Grant Robinson. Gerdon was a member of the Walton High School Rifle Club in 1936. He graduated from Walton High School with a degree in Vocational Agriculture on 27 June 1939.

Walton Reporter, Jan 4, 1940: Annual ice harvest has started on the Loudon pond, South street, Walton, where 10-inch ice is being harvested. Shown hauling cakes on the sled is George Harrington. Feeding ice into the chute is Ogden Foote, while Gerdon Budine pushes ice cakes into the loading canal.

Note written by his wife Anne: "I remember sitting in Smiths hospital on your 21st birthday. Your Dad Leslie passed away that afternoon, Sept. 2, 1940."

His Selective Service System Draft Registration card, issued 22 June 1944, shows he was issued a draft code of 2-C (Agricultural deferment).

Walton Reporter, 1960: Unadilla Couple Hurt; He Gets Summons. Gerdon B. Budine, 41, and his wife, Ann, 40, both of Unadilla, R.D. 1, suffered fractured vertebrae Saturday morning when their car was involved in a crash with a tractor-trailer on Route 7 when both vehicles were headed east. Mr. Budine also received a summons for an unsafe turn which is returnable before Town of Afton Justice Arthur Grover. State police at Sidney said that Mr. Budine was heading east when he attempted to make a left turn just as the rig operated by Earl B. Steele, Clayton, attempted to pass. The tractor-trailer was forced into the guardrails and the Budine car went into a ditch.

LEATHERCRAFT: Walton Reporter, January 1972: Leathercraft Work All Began With a Play Kit. A series of mishaps in his life set Gerdon Budine of Unadilla RD 1 on a course which gave him a new hobby and now a major vocation. Their hobby actually started for the Budines in 1969 when Mr. Budine was laid up for a few months with Meniere's disease, an ailment affecting the balancing factor of the inner ear. Their daughter, Kay Roof of Sidney Center, bought him a beginner's kit for leather working. On Jan. 28, 1970, Mr. Budine and his wife, Anne, suffered serious injuries in a traffic accident in Afton vicinity which yielded both of them with broken backs. There followed long....

At first he shunned the kit with the objection that he is "no artist." But because she cared enough to get it for him he broke into it one day and became a captive artisan. Today Mr. Budine works in leather craft every chance he gets, and with his wife operates Anne's Gift Shop on the Walton-Sidney road near Sidney Center in a small trailer where is also located his tiny workshop. He sounds like a cowboy when he talks about "pounding leather" but that's what it amounts to when Gerdon Budine takes a piece of leather, punch and hammer and starts to fashion a handbag or billfold. Anne assists by working with other offerings of the shop--belts, suede leather articles, decorative items. She also does the lacing on the products of her husband's bench.

Recently, a reporter's attention was drawn to a handbag which had been crafted from leather. It featured a picture of the former Leslie Budine store and filling station once located the corner of Route 10 and the Bob's Brook road. It was more realistic than the snapshot from which it was taken because this was Gerdon Budine's home ground many years ago.

The Budines find that their hobby not only brings in extra income but it leads to new friendships at the art shows they attend. Next year they plan to do some traveling while the one child remaining at home is in Europe. Along with them, naturally, will be a supply of leather articles.

Customers occasionally have strange requests. One wife had "My love to you, honey" stenciled inside a billfold, Another person in the business of raising goats had a goat placed on his billfold; another person not at all related to the first one also requested the goat picture.

He put a picture of a Franklin church on a key case and a member of the church snapped it up almost before it was completed. Some of the customers include work associates in Department 29 at The Bendix Corporation in Sidney, where Mrs. Budine is also employed.

When seen the other day Mr. Budine was working on the first project he has undertaken for himself. His children gave him a mod type wineskin for Christmas. It has a leather surface so it will now have a new covering with pictures of deer and other animals embossed on it. The Christmas rush is over and he can afford to fool around a little with what started as a hobby performed by a reluctant hobbyist.

OBITUARY 1: Bradenton, Florida paper (3/16/1997): Gerdon B. Budine, 77, of Bradenton, died March 14, 1997, in Columbia Doctors Hospital of Sarasota. There will be no visitation. Service will be Monday [March 17] at 11 a.m. at Toale Brothers Funeral Home, 912 53rd Ave. W., Bradenton, the Rev. Carl Fortner officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to Gideons International, P.O. Box 20574, Bradenton, Fla., 34204.

Born in Walton, NY, Mr. Budine moved from Walton to Manatee County in 1977. He was a retired machinist for Bendix Electrical Co. Mr. Budine was a Methodist. Before moving to Florida in the seventies, he conducted a hand-made leather business from his home on the Sidney-Sidney Center road specializing in handbags and billforlds under the name Leather Craft.

Notes for Anne Lucy Jane Constable

SCHOOL: Graduated from Walton High School in the class of 1938 with a Commercial Diploma (New Type). She got $5 for highest Commercial Diploma. ("Big deal!" she wrote.) She also got 98 in State Regents in Law. Took part in the Class Night program, Monday, June 27, 1938 and graduated the next day. The following year, she took a post-graduate course at the high school just to be with and encourage future husband, Gerdon Budine, who indeed graduated in June of 1939. ("You made it!" she wrote.)

MISC: Note written by Anne: "Sept. 8, 1940 - How nervous we were at the parsonage waiting for Rev. Grant to marry us? - and how he accepted $5 of the $10 you owned? - and going to Vivian and Tracy's for a party - with her dup Chocolate Cake..."

Note later written by Anne: "The fire we had - with the black smoke - and how all the neighbor women spent days with 'a neighborhood bee' helping us clean? - when every drawer was full of black - from rubber artics & boots that were on a rack in the cellar and burned? I remember I even had a stack of flowered feed sacks that had to be rewashed."

Certificate from the Delaware County Regional Clearing House Association, 1942: "This is to certify that Mr. & Mrs. Gerdon Budine is township winner for the town of Walton in the Adequate Garden for Victory Contest 1942".

OBITUARY: Services were held at Toale Brothers Bradenton Chapel, 912 53rd Avenue West, Bradenton, Florida, 19 Jan 1999.

MARRIAGE: Marriage certificate states they were married at 9 p.m. 8 September 1940 by Rev. Grant Robinson.

Notes for Philip S. Duffield

PHILIP S. DUFFIELD - BIOGRAPHY: From MOBILIFE December, 1954, a publication of Socony-Vacuum Oil Company, Paulsboro, NJ.

Another well known citizen of Cedarville, New Jersey is one of Paulsboro Refinery's oldest annuitants - Phillip S. Duffield, who is 84 [Social Security #066-07-7255]. Phil retired in 1941 after seventeen years service. He was first a checker in the Package Division. Because of his experience as a telegraph operator Phil was later made switch-board operator in the Main Office. He liked the 6 P.M. to 7 A.M. Shift. That was when Carl Hamm was Superintendent. In those days, Mr. Hamm made a weekly trip to New York. In order to make sure he got up on time, he always had Phil call desire to see a grand turnout him at 4 A. M. Phil says he worried about staying awake to get Mr. Hamm up on time. He is proud to think he never missed.

Philip Duffield, or "Duffle" as the townsfolk call him, is a straight-backed man with exceptionally clear eyes. He says, "There is nothing the matter with me." The truth of that statement is revealed by his hobby of bicycling. He pedals to Fortescue, Port Norris, Bivalve, Bridgeton or Millville, towns within a radius of 8-12 miles. He says it's good for him.

Before Phil worked at Paulsboro Refinery he was supervisor of the gun cotton line in Du Pont's Hopewell, Virginia plant. Previous to that he was ticket agent at the East Bridgeton office of the Jersey Central Railroad, on the Cumberland-Maurice River Branch.

Ticket agents were also telegraph operators. Phil learned his "dot-dash" at the Valentine Telegraph School in Janesville, Wisconsin. His instructor was George S. Parker, who had already invented the famous Parker Pen. He sold pens to his pupils at cost so they would be tested under actual working conditions. Today Parker Pens are known throughout the world. Phil says he has been partial to Parker Pens ever since those early days.

For Socony-Vacuum people, Phil has every word of praise. He would be happy to receive a visit from his old Paulsboro friends. He has a daughter in Tucson, Arizona, who would like him to come out there to live, but Phil is perfectly satisfied in Cedarville among his old friends.

Children of Philip S. Duffield and Ada Henderson were as follows:

- 9 i Alma Henderson⁴ Duffield, born 17 Dec 1907 in Cedarville, Cumberland, NJ; died 29 May 2003 in Holy Cross Hospital, Nogales, Santa Cruz, AZ. She married (1) on 26 Dec 1926 in Paulsboro, Gloucester, NJ, divorced Charles (Cully) Donald Flowers, born 15 Jul 1905; died 3 Apr 1978; (2) in 1934 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, PA, divorced Samuel Walton; (3) in 1937 in Pennsylvania, divorced Raymond Taylor Simpson, born 25 Mar 1902 in Sidney Center, Delaware, NY; died 4 Aug 1971 in Endwell, Broome, NY, son of Jay C. Simpson and Mary Adell (Shaw) Simpson; (4) in Scottsbluff County, NE Theodore (Teddy) G. Ready, died 1986 in V.A. Hospital, Tucson, Pima, AZ.

20. Leslie Melvin⁵ Budine, born 12 Jul 1875 in Downs ville, Delaware, NY; died 3 Sep 1940 in Walton, Delaware, NY, son of 40. Asa Budine and 41. Mary Jane (Beagle) Budine. He married on 1 Jan 1895 in Walton, Delaware, NY 21. Viola May (Gilbert) Budine, born 30 Mar 1876 in Dryden, Tompkins, NY; died 1 Feb 1964 in Walton, Delaware, NY, daughter of 42. John H. Gilbert and 43. Hannah Elizabeth (Phoenix) Gilbert.

Notes for Leslie Melvin Budine

Wedding invitation: "Mr. and Mrs. Asa Budine request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their son Leslie M. to Miss Viola M. Gilbert Tuesday evening, January 1st, 1895, at their residence on Pine's Brook, at nine o'clock, Walton, N.Y."

MR. BUDINE BEGINS HIS WORK: From the Walton Reporter (year unknown): New Superintendent of Highways Putting Town Roads in Shape for the winter. The new superintendents of highways, who were elected in the different towns of this county, took the oath of office within a day or two and on Thursday assumed their new duties, their terms of office beginning at once.

County superintendent of highways VanTassle is busy conferring with these officials in the various towns, and helping them to get started in their work.

Mr. VanTassle was in Walton Friday and Monday consulting with Leslie M. Budine, the new superintendent of highways in this town.

Mr. Budine already has several men at work opening ditches and cleaning out sluices in various parts of the town, preparatory for winter. As soon as the weather is more favorable he expects to employ many more men for a day or two each in this work, hoping to get the roads in good condition to stand the winter weather, and to afford proper drainage in the spring so as to avoid as much washing as possible.

Mr. Budine plans to make numerous changes in the system of working the roads in this town, but most of them will not be put into operation until spring, all that he can do now being to get the roads in as good shape as possible for winter, and to do the work as cheaply as he can.

FLOWERS: From the Walton Reporter, 1942...A bunch of purple violets was picked on the L.M. Budine farm at Pines on Tuesday, Oct. 20.

MAN IN SHACK: From the Walton Reporter, date unknown...Walton Man Found Seriously Ill in Dilapidated Shack. Albert Howland, 72, Missing About Town, Found by Leslie Budine. Walton, Oct. 7.

In a dirty shack, which is in a most dilapidated condition, on Bob's Brook, Albert Howland, 72, was found by Leslie Budine lying on the floor in so weakened condition that he could not move. Mr. Budine had wondered at the whereabouts of Howland as he had not seen him in some time, so he made a special visit to the shack Thursday afternoon to see if he could locate him. The door was unlocked, and Howland, when he heard someone at the door, feebly called, 'Come in', so Budine walked in and found the man in an exhausted condition on the floor, where he had lain all day. Food was immediately furnished him and he was made as comfortable as possible. Dr. E. Ray Gladstone was called to the scene Friday afternoon. When he saw the conditions at the shack, he immediately contacted Frank Cadwood, local poor worker. Cadwood called the ambulance of A.J. Holmes & Co., and Howland was taken to the county farm at Delhi, where he will probably spend the winter.

Howland was exhausted because of the lack of food and being an old man, his strength soon gave way so it was impossible for him to call for help. Were it not for the thoughtfulness of Mr. Budine, Mr. Howland would probably have died alone."

OBITUARY: Buried at Walton, NY Cemetery. Leslie M. Budine died at the Stevens Hospital in Walton, NY Tuesday, 9/3/1940. He entered the hospital for an operation about 12 days before that and was making a good recovery when stricken by a cerebral hemorrhage which caused his death. He was born in the town of Colchester and moved to Walton while still a child, and lived most of his life on the farm at Pines. He was well known throughout Walton Township, having served as superintendent of highways. He was also a member of the Delaware county unit of the Dairy Farmers' Union.

For years he owned and operated the Leslie Budine store and filling station on the corner of Route 10 and Bob's Brook road in Walton, NY. He was a good father and a kind neighbor and always willing to help those who needed his aid and a faithful worker in every cause in which he believed. He is survived by his 8 children and by a half brother Herman Budine. The funeral was held at his home Thursday at 2 p.m., Rev. Grant Robinson, pastor of the Methodist church, of which he was a member, officiating. Burial was in the Walton cemetery.

Notes for Viola May Gilbert

Mrs. Leslie Budine entertained thirty young ladies Friday afternoon from three to six, in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Bert Welch, whose marriage took place June 16th. A variety shower was given her including aluminum ware, china and linen. Ice cream, cake and punch were served. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stewart entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bert Welch and his brother, Augustus Welch, at a six-course dinner.

According to Mrs. Gerdon Budine, Grandma Gilbert (from Bob's Brook) had a spring run - a trench dug in the cellar and used that for refrigeration. They had a "dumb waiter" on pulleys to raise and lower the milk, butter, etc.

OBITUARY: Binghamton Press, Feb. 3, 1964: Mrs. Viola Budine, 88, Mead St., Walton, died Saturday at her home. She is survived by a son, Gerdon Budine, Sidney Center; five daughters, Mrs. Daisy Schriber, South Edmeston, Mrs. Bernice Bartow, Walton, Miss Eunice Budine and Mrs. Vivian Brundage, both of Schenectady, Mrs. Francis McAdams, Walton; three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Gilbert and Mrs. Cora Cole, both of Walton and Mrs. Carrie Wright, Franklin; a brother, Alfred Gilbert, Walton; 28 grandchildren; 42 great-grandchildren. She was born March 30, 1876 in Dryden the daughter of John Gilbert and Hannah Phoenix. She was married Jan. 1, 1895 to Leslie Budine in Walton. Mrs. Budine was a member of the First Methodist Church of Walton and the Women's Relief Corp. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Lyon Brothers Chapel, Walton. The Rev. Henry G. Lincoln will officiate. Friends may call at the funeral chapel today from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. and until time of service.

Children of Leslie Melvin Budine and Viola May Gilbert were as follows:

- i Daisy Blanche⁴ Budine, born 20 Jul 1896 in Walton, Delaware, NY; died 13 Nov 1977 in Walton, Delaware, NY. Notes: HEART BALM: From the Walton Reporter, July 1, 1922: The case of Irene Lent versus Lawrence Budine to recover damages for alleged breach of promise, formerly slated for trial at this term of Delhi court, has been settled by mutual agreement without further litigation. The case grew out of an affair between Lawrence Budine of Walton, and Irene Lent of Cornwall-on Hudson. Lawrence, it is said, was bestowing, freely, his affections upon the receptive Miss Lent, with the ultimate result that a future marriage was arranged for by the two. At a later time and before the carrying out of former plans, Mr. Budine decided upon a change of affections and was accordingly married to Mrs. Hazel Lakin of Walton. Miss Lent, at hearing of this, at once arrived at the decision that nothing short of the payment of a few hundred dollars to her by Budine would possibly heal the heart wound caused by the alleged falsity of Budine. Suit was accordingly instituted and the case came to trial in Delhi court, where the jury decided that the proper heart balm was $1700.50. The case was appealed and was coming into court on the present calendar, for the third time. But now the case is settled and Walton rejoices that her native son and prominent businessman is again free. Besides, four hundred dollars is somewhat different than $1700.50. Cigar smoking Lawrence "Uncle Butch" owned businesses in Walton, was a guard at Scintilla in Sidney and ran Budine's Taxi service in Walton with his wife Hazel for several years.

Notes for Archie John Constable (87)

LODGE: Archie was a member in good standing in 1920 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows Lodge no. 824 in Walton, NY. He was also a member of the Dairymen's League Co-operative Association in Walton.

WEDDING: From the Walton Reporter Oct. 14, 1955: Never Milked Cow Until After Wedding--For Mr. and Mrs. Archie Constable there was a bit of discomfiture, aside from the usual nervous strain, on their wedding day. The weather did not co-operate for it rained on Oct. 11, 1905, and Mr. Constable was forced to assume an exaggerated head high stance because of the four-inch collar which he wore.

Marianne (McCaffrey) Greenfield states that Archie and Lucy had a double wedding with Louis Allen and Ida Finch on 11 Oct 1905. They also had a double honeymoon and went to New York City together.

OBITUARY: From the Walton Reporter, August, 1979: Archie J. Constable of 20 New Street, Walton, longtime dairy farmer and well known Walton resident, died Saturday, August 25 at home. He was 94 years old. Mr. Constable was born at Cleaver Feb. 17, 1885 to James H. and Anna Phoenix Constable. He married Lucy Jane Finch in 1905. She died in 1961.

He had conducted a dairying business on Third Brook for 40 years and for several years had lived alone at his most recent address. He was a member of Walton First Baptist church and for many years took an active interest in the work of the Delaware Valley Agricultural society, producers of the county fair.

Surviving him are two sons, Max K. Constable of Cortland and James H. Constable of Oneonta; two daughters, Mrs. Thomas J. McCaffrey of Walton and Mrs. Gerdon B. Budine of Hobe Sound, Florida; a sister, Mrs. Nina Budine of Walton. Services were Tuesday from Lyon Brothers' chapel in Walton with Rev. Roger Spinney and Rev. Eugene Willis officiating. Burial was in Walton cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the Walton Emergency squad in his name."

LETTER TO THE EDITORS OF THE WALTON REPORTER: from Carol Simeon Scheer, 301 E.50th St., New York, NY, August, 1979, "Dear Editors, Archie Constable lived next door to my aunt. Ever since I was a little girl and spent my summers in Walton, Archie was always there. He'd talk to all the kids; he'd show us his garden; he'd ask how we were doing with swimming lessons. Everyone was always fond of Archie. As the years passed and my visits to Walton became less frequent, Archie became more frail and moved very slowly. But he still had his garden every summer and he still loved to talk. We would usually see him walking very carefully over to his sister's house and he'd say hi if you called out loud enough for him to hear you. I didn't always see Archie every time I visited Walton these last few years, but it was comforting to know that he was still next door.

Archie died last Saturday. He'd been sitting outside, looking at his garden, and a little while later he quietly expired. He was 94 years old. He was the oldest person I had ever known. I didn't even know him well; he lived next door to my aunt and I spent my summers at her house as a child. I'll miss Archie. It already seems strange to think that he's not right next door like he always was."

Notes for Lucy Jane Finch

Was married to Archie Constable in a double wedding with Iva Mae Finch and Lewis Allen, who later was gored to death by a bull.

HOME BUREAU: Walton Reporter, Nov 1933: "At the annual meeting of the Delaware County Farm and Home Bureau association held in Delhi last Saturday, Nov. 4, 1933, 125 members gathered from all parts of Delaware County to transact the business of another year. Prizes for the home grounds improvement contest were presented. These prizes, contributed by the Delaware County Bankers' association, consisted of ten cash prizes. First prize of $15.00 went to Mrs. Archie Constable, Walton."

Lucy Jane was very active in the home bureau. She won second prize in another Home Grounds Improvement contest. Another time, she spent a week at the NY State Fair in charge of the Home Bureau exhibit of Kitchen Door planting with Mrs. Jennie Young. Her funeral service was held at Lyon Brothers' Chapel, Walton, NY at 2 p.m. Aug 12, 1961. She is buried in the Walton cemetery.

POEM: "A Prayer for Light" by Lucy Jane Constable, 16 Feb 1941.

Heavenly spirit give us light to keep us on our way aright.
Light enough for this day's journey keep thy beacon burning bright.
Let it be a ray to guide us
On our journey here below,
A ray strong and true to keep us thine
All our way through time.
Father our times are dark,
Manmade blackout round us thick is drawn.
Oh let they light shine bright within us.
Dark is thickest before dawn.

Children of Archie John Constable (87) and Lucy Jane Finch were as follows:

- i Max Kingsley[†] Constable, born 30 Jun 1906 in Loomis, Sullivan, NY (4 mi. from Walton); died 19 May 1996 in Englewood, Sarasota, Florida. He married on 31 Dec 1932 in Ithaca, NY Elizabeth

Notes for George A. Simpson

CENSUS: Farmer George Simpson was listed in 1870 US census as living in the town of Masonville, Delaware Co., NY, and owning $4000 in real estate and $1150 personal property.

THROUGH THE YEARS (TTY):

p52: "Minutes of (Highland Cemetery) Trustees' meetings in 1883 contain offers to sell land to the Association by Geo. A. Simpson, H.W. Dewey and S.L. Wattles, although they do not contain any definite reports as to the actual purchase of land for the cemetery."

p52: 1897 Highland Cemetery meeting minutes--"Geo. H. Simpson agreed to build (grounds tool house) 7 1/2 feet high completed foundation wall laying same above the ground in cement and digging foundation - for $52.00, which offer was accepted."

p48: "July 3, 1924 obituary of Mary E. Fisher states '-came from Crookerville with parents, Samuel and Persis Davis in 1844 when the village consisted of 5 houses, one of which they had moved from the Simpson farm to the corner of Main and Franklin Streets, site now occupied by the ME church, which was the Davis home for many years."

p48: "Sept. 25, 1888-- 'Mrs. Persis Davis is having her house shingled over. It is one of the old landmarks that we have left here. It was built about 50 years ago by a man by the name of William Foot and stood about one-half mile from the Centre on the farm owned by George Simpson. Sometime after it was built, it was removed to the Centre and put where it now stands. It came into the possession of Samuel Davis, who lived and died there. His widow still lives there and the old stone blacksmith shop that Mr. Davis worked in still stands across the road. It is believed that the house stood where the Methodist Church now stands (1992) on the corner of Main and Franklin (Easy) Streets and the blacksmith shop stood where the Howes Building Supply is."

p157: "May 31, 1895 (DDR)--George Simpson is digging the cellar and hauling stone and lumber to build a fine residence on Franklin Street. Charles and Edward Wheat are the architects and estimated expense is $2500." Accompanying photo is captioned: "House built by Mr. Simpson. Owned by Al & Naomi Adams 1992."

p185: "Oct. 10, 1896(WR)--Arrangements are being made to run a telephone line from this place to Sidney. George Haight has taken half the stock and George Simpson a large part of the remainder. The cost is estimated at about $300. The poles are being placed."

p197: "Mar. 16, 1901(WR)--Highway Commissioner Southard was here last week and made appointments of pathmasters. In the village are Fowler Finch, Henry Morse, George Simpson, Harmon Palmatier, G.E. Stilson and FrankSmith."

p36 written by James Bartz in 1937 at age 13: "The first school in the Sidney Center District was located on the Simpson Farm (Floyd Roof's). A little while later it was moved to about where Mr. Sagendorf's farm is now."

p43 by Mrs. Blanche Sagendorf in 1948: "The first school house built in Sidney Center district was located on the farm now owned by Fowler Finch, formerly known as the Simpson farm."

Children of George A. Simpson and Martha A. Youngs were as follows:

- i Albert H. (Bert)⁵ Simpson³, born 30 Mar 1867 in Masonville, Delaware, NY; died 26 Oct 1915 in Sidney Center, Delaware, NY; buried in Highland Cemetery, Sidney Center, Delaware, NY. He married on 29 Mar 1900 in Sidney, Delaware, NY Mary A. (Youngs) Simpson, born 4 Jul 1870 in Sand Hills, Otsego, NY; died 1952 in Sidney Center, Delaware, NY; buried in Highland Cemetery, Sidney Center, Delaware, NY, daughter of Albert Youngs and Armenia Spencer (Wait) Youngs. Notes: THROUGH THE YEARS (TTY): p121: "Albert H. Simpson attended the Delaware Literary Institute at Franklin, N.Y. 1884-85 with Charles H. Beakes." p175: "The spelling of Sidney Centre was changed to 'Sidney Center' August 27, 1897 with Albert H. Simpson as Postmaster." (This was the same date that Albert became Postmaster.) p175: "May 8, 1915(WR)--Edward Comstock, the new Postmaster, took possession of the office on May 1st keeping it in the same location where it has been for the past thirty years. A.H. Simpson, who leaves the office after being Postmaster for nearly 18 years--." (The previous paragraph says the Post Office was moved to the Simpson block in 1907 where it apparently stayed for about 30 years. p211: "May 8, 1915(SR)--A.H. Simpson who leaves the office after being Postmaster for nearly 18 years, will remain in Sidney Center for the present and is fitting up an office in his residence to use for his Justice of Peace business, etc." p265: "July 14, 1915(SE)--Sidney Center suffered greatly from the deluge last Thursday which was one of the most expensive floods causing hundreds of dollars to the crops, especially hay that in many places was totally destroyed...a henhouse containing 40 hens belonging to A.H. Simpson was carried downstream, another was taken off its foundation but lodged against the barn." p52: "June 5, 1923--A meeting of the Cemetery Association was held at the home of Albert Youngs last Saturday evening. A committee of 5 was appointed to solicit funds and take charge of the work of laying a concrete walk to Highland Cemetery. The committee is composed of A.H. Simpson, Secretary; James Hodges, Treasurer; Albert Youngs, Joseph Mudford and G.E. Holley." WEDDING: From local newspaper, 1900 or 1906: "Hymneal - Simpson-Youngs. About forty relatives and friends assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Youngs in Sidney Centre Thursday, March 29, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Mary A., to Albert H. Simpson. The ceremonies of the occasion were entirely free from formality the couple mingling with the company and visiting until the time for the ceremony, when they took their places under the festoons of evergreens, arranged for the occasion, and were married. The Rev. L.H. Long, of Calicoon Depot, brother-in-law of the bride, was the officiating minister. After the ceremony a beautiful dinner was served and then the happy couple left on train 1 for a short wedding trip. In a few days Mr. and Mrs. Simpson will commence housekeeping in the house of D.R. Southard near the ME Church. Many presents were given the bride and groom and had among their money gifts amounts to quite a sum. Mr. Simpson is Sidney Centre's postmaster and is well known to Delaware County. Miss Youngs was one of Sidney Centre's most highly esteemed young ladies." BERT'S LETTER: Letter from A.H. Simpson to his aunt Mary Jane (Simpson Beardsley) Moss in Oregon, undated: "I am still the Postmaster here which takes up part of my time. Mary helps me in the office and we have a boy that helps nights and mornings and goes to school. I can just remember you as you looked the night you started west a good many years ago - Frankie and I were small then - Now we will soon be old folks if we live. I wish we could see you all and some time I intend to come to the Coast - but we can't go anywhere now on account of the Post Office. How are all my cousins getting along? Write me all about them what their business is and how many children they have and everything. I remember soon after Frankie was married we heard her husband had very poor health - Has he gotten all strong? Did any of you get a chance to see the President in his recent trip to the West? I have seen him once. We had strawberry shortcake for dinner today and will have one for tomorrow - but the berries were not grown here - they came from the south. Ours will be ripe in about 10 days. Write soon. Your nephew, A.H. Simpson" Bert was active in the Methodist Church and was a loyal Republican. He died in 1915...cause of death - cancer.

Notes for Edward S. Shaw

CENSUS: 1880 Federal census lists Edward, Sarah, Ida, Rosa and Mary A. residing at page 13 dwelling 122 family 133 in Town of Sidney, Delaware, NY.

OBITUARY: Tri-Town News, March 29, 1924: DEATH OF BELOVED RESIDENT. Edward S. Shaw, Long an Invalid, Enters Eternal Rest At His Home In Sidney. Ill health, dating well nigh 40 years is merciless from the fact that it spares neither the just nor the unjust. All are liable to suffer, the good, the bad and the indifferent.

We are reminded of that fact by the death at his home in this village, Friday afternoon, 21st inst of the late Edward Smith Shaw, who during his whole life time of 79 years had resided in the Township of Sidney, principally at Sidney Center, always esteemed and held in high respect by all who were acquainted with him and his family.

It can be truly said that Mr. Shaw entered into rest from a life that had denied him its most valuable possession, which is good health. For forty years on account of stomach trouble he could eat no solid food of any kind, subsisting only on the very lightest nourishment. Yet, in spite of this Mr. Shaw was always cheerful in the society of family and friends, never complained, bearing his long suffering with courage and fortitude. His last illness was of only a few days duration and at the end he peacefully passed away to the deep regret of a large circle of devoted relatives and sincere friends.

His whole life was one of true devotion to his family. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw enjoyed the peace and contentment of 57 years of married life, Mrs. Shaw at the time of her marriage was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Patrick of Sidney Center, where the joyous celebration of their golden wedding anniversary gave expression to the widespread esteem and love of all. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shaw were a most devoted couple, both tenderly devoted to each other, living most happy, contented lives, helping and cheering one another. The presents for the occasion were numerous and beautiful.

The funeral services on Monday afternoon, 24th, by the large attendance gave ample evidence of the esteem in which Mr. Shaw and family is everywhere held. The services were conducted by the Rev. A. D. Finch, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who tenderly spoke of the useful, kindly life just closed. The flowers were especially beautiful as well as numerous tributes of loving affection. The bearers were all his grandsons and the remains were conveyed to Sidney Center, N.Y.

Surviving in the immediate family besides the widow, are two daughters, Mrs. J. C. Simpson, of Sidney and Mrs. O. L. Benedict, of Sidney Center, N. Y. Also one brother, former Supervisor Shaw, of Binghamton and one sister, Mrs. Comstall, of Sidney Center, and numerous grandchildren. The deepest sympathy of all goes forth to them in their bereavement.

Notes for Sarah J. Patrick

Tri-Town News, 1934: Mrs. Sarah J. Shaw, widow of the late Edward S. Shaw, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J.C. Simpson in this village, Saturday night after an illness of about nine weeks, at the age of 85 years, she having been born September 13, 1849.

Mrs. Shaw was born at Sidney Center, the daughter of James and Mary Patrick. She was married to Edward Shaw, September 5, 1867 and to them were born three daughters, Ida B. Benedict of Sidney Center, Rosamond Hoyt, deceased, and Mary A. Simpson of this village. Mr. Shaw died at their home in this village March 21, 1924. Besides the two daughters, she is survived by eight grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren.

Nearly all of Mrs. Shaw's life was spent in Sidney Center, she and her husband coming to Sidney to make their home about 15 years ago. In her girlhood she united with the Sidney Center Methodist church, in which she retained her membership until the end of her life. In the village where most of her life was spent she was highly regarded not only for her Christian virtues but for her kindness and sincere regard for the happiness of her neighbors. During the years in Sidney she made many friends, although advancing age compelled her closer confinement to the home. She was remarkably active for one of her years until nine weeks ago, and during her confinement her room has been a bower of beautiful flowers, the gifts of friends and neighbors.

The funeral was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Simpson, on West Main Street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the services being in charge of Rev. F.W. Connell, pastor of the Sidney Methodist church, and the interment was in Highland cemetery at Sidney Center. The room in the Simpson home, where the casket was placed during the funeral, was filled with beautiful floral offerings, a display of mute affection and esteem, evidencing the beautiful character of Mrs. Shaw as well as the high place in the esteem of her neighbors, which she held.

The bearers at the funeral were Herman Von Kampen, John Brown, Archie Bristol, Harry Wakelee, Merton Smith and Frank Johnson, neighbors of the deceased. Among the out-of-town people attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shaw and Guy Patrick of Binghamton; Mrs. Cora Miller, Morris; Mrs. Inez Bidwell, Oneonta; Mr. and Mrs. Olin Benedict and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Benedict, Walton; Raymond Simpson of New York city; Mrs. Leslie Young and Mrs. Iva Hamlin of Norwich.

Notes for Asa Budine

OBITUARY: Asa Budine died suddenly Sunday morning, July 6, at his home in the Munn extension, aged 73 years. Mr. Budine had been in ill health a long time. In May his home on Dryden Brook burned to the ground, and since then Mr. and Mrs. Budine have been living at their home in Walton village. Sunday morning, while still in bed, he asked his wife to get him a cup of hot water. These were the last words he spoke, as he was stricken almost immediately afterwards.

Notes for Augusta Cartwright

OBITUARY: (September 1928, Walton Reporter); died early Thursday morning, Sept. 27, at the home of her stepson, Leslie Budine, with stoppage of the bowels. She was 83 years of age.

After the death of Asa Budine fourteen years ago Mrs. Budine went to Gilboa, her former home, to live with a sister, Mrs. Kingsley. After her death about three years ago she went to Cooksburgh and lived with her son, Warren Snyder, until last October when Mr. and Mrs. Budine went to Cooksburgh, she returning home with them and has been tenderly cared for by them until her death. Mrs. Budine or "Grandma," as she was called, has been very active in life and had just finished crocheting two dozen booties when she was stricken with the fatal disease, from which on account of her advanced age, she could not survive. A call was sent to her stepson, Herman Budine, who lives at Loomis, and with his wife came at once and was with her when death came.

Mrs. Budine leaves a son and a daughter by her first marriage. Warren Snyder and Mrs. Lillian Becker of Gilboa; eight grandchildren, two great grandchildren, also five stepsons by her second marriage, of whom three survive, Burton of Pines brook, Herman of Loomis and Leslie of Walton; Nathan died last February, Cyrus died in April and George died two years ago; also a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Burton Budine, who died two years ago, and several step grandchildren, A short prayer was held at the house at 10 o'clock by Rev. Robinson and at Gilboa at 1:30 at the church by Rev. Wickerson with burial in the Gilboa cemetery.

Children of Asa Budine and Mary Jane Beagle were as follows:

- i Cyrus Henry⁵ Budine, born 12 May 1864 in Walton, Delaware, NY; died 11 Feb 1928 in Fox Hospital, Oneonta, Otsego, NY. He married on 15 Nov 1887 in Walton, Delaware, NY Hannah

Elizabeth (Shutters) Budine, born 15 Nov 1869; died 3 Nov 1936 in Walton, Delaware, NY; buried in Walton Cemetery, Walton, Delaware, NY. Notes: Walton Reporter, Feb. 1928: Cyrus H. Budine of Walton, aged 64 years, passed away at the Fox Memorial hospital in Oneonta on Saturday, February 11, from the effects of cancer. Mr. Budine was taken to the hospital the week previous.

Mr. Budine was born in Walton, the son of Asa and Mary Budine. Practically all his life had been spent as a farmer and for many years he has occupied a farm near the Oxbow at Walton. He was a man of friendly disposition whose passing many friends will mourn. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Hannah Shutters before her marriage and by 4 daughters and 6 sons. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the First Methodist church of Walton, of which he was a member, Rev. C.E. Rignall, the pastor, officiating. Burial was made in the Walton cemetery.

- ii George Washington⁵ Budine, born 26 Nov 1865 in Walton, Delaware, NY; died 21 Apr 1926 in Walton, Delaware, NY (Pines Brook). He married on 6 Nov 1889 Addie (aka Hattie, Harriet) Electa (Scoville) Budine, born 8 Oct 1868; died 1951. Notes: Walton Reporter, April 1926: Died of Angina. On Wednesday morning, April 21, occurred the death of George W. Budine at his home on Pines brook, Walton, at the age of sixty years. He suffered a severe attack of grip about two months ago from which he never fully recovered, but was confined to his bed only about one week. Death was caused by neuralgia of the heart. Mr. Budine was a kind and loving husband and father, always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need and had a kind word for everyone. He was a loyal member of the M.E. church and was always present at the services. He will be greatly missed by his many friends as well as in the family circle. He leaves his wife and six children; Archie, Mrs. Cecil Feltman, Delos, Mrs. Leon Houck, Forest and Ruth. The funeral service will be held Saturday at 2 o'clock at the home. Burial will be made in the Walton cemetery.

- iii Nathan⁵ Budine, born 9 Apr 1868 in Walton, Delaware, NY; died 4 Jan 1928 in Walton, Delaware, NY; buried in Walton Cemetery, Walton, Delaware, NY. He married Julia (Christian)

Budine, born 1871; died 1948. Notes: ROUND BARN: Nathan built one of the few round barns ever constructed in the Walton, NY area. It was built on a hillside along the left fork of the Pines Brook road and was once used by the American Welfare League. Nathan's son, Harland, lived just down the road. It was said Nathan saw a barn like it "out west" and decided to build one on his farm at the head of Pines Brook. It was bought by Werner and Heinz Schiipel in 1954 after being employed at the farm since 1943. Walton Reporter. Walton, N.Y. June 11, 1975: The Martins' unique round barn was the subject of a book of which only a few copies remain, according to Delaware County Historian H. Fletcher Davidson of Bovina Center, who said he believed it had been built by someone named McCrory. Werner and Heinz Schiippel's barn is on a hillside along the left fork of Pines brook road. it was built by Nathan Budine whose son, Harlan, lives not far down the road and was used at one time by the American Welfare league. Mr. Budine had seen such a barn in use "out west" and decided to build one like it, it is said. The Schiippel brothers, whose father was a German immigrant, bought the farm ("We got a good deal," say Heinz and Werner) in 1954 after having been employed there since 1943. It has its advantages and disadvantages, they relate. The mow is cooler than that of conventional barns. A cupola at the top of the barn which is some 80 feet above the main floor level provides superior ventilation. It poses a problem with bales, however, due to its shape. "It would be ideal for loose, hay and would allow more to be stacked in that manner than in your square barns," notes Heinz. It would be suitable for horses, the brothers feel, and has during its existence been used for just that purpose. But they strictly use it as a dairy barn at present. They have 70 head of cattle, of which 56 are milkers. Stanchions are set up as in a conventional barn but, says Werner, "You don't have to walk so far." "We had to build corners on so we could straighten out the gutters," Heinz remarks, "otherwise they froze up on us during the winter." Walton Reporter

4 October 2000 headline reads: "100-Year-Old Pines Brook Round Barn Collapses [Friday, 29 Sep 2000]." OBITUARY: Found Dead in Bed...Nathan Budine, Pines Brook Farmer, Dies Wednesday. Nathan Budine of Pines Brook in the town of Walton was found dead in bed Wednesday morning. Mr. Budine on retiring Tuesday night appeared to be in good health. Wednesday morning when Mrs. Budine awoke she found that Mr. Budine, who was an early riser, had not built the fires or tended to the chores as was his custom. She went to his room and found that he had passed away during the night. Mr. Budine, who was 59 years of age, had spent his entire life on Pines Brook, where he had the respect and friendship of all in that neighborhood. Thirty-six years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Julia Christian. Three children were born to this union, two of whom, Rufus and Harland, survive; another son, Nathan, died several years ago.

Notes for John H. Gilbert

Mrs. Cole and ??? are the same. Farm laborer John Gilbert and family lived in township of Tompkins, Delaware County, NY according to 1880 US Census.

From Walton Reporter (1930s?): Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert of Bobs Brook gave an old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner to their children; 23 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren were present as well as four of the five children. A most elaborate dinner was served by their children. The time passed all too quickly and as the guests departed they wished their parents many happy returns of the day.

From Walton Reporter (date?): Several of the friends of the late John Gilbert attended his funeral at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Leslie Budine, last Thursday.

Notes for Hannah Elizabeth Phoenix

OBITUARY: Walton Reporter, Feb. 1944: Hannah Elizabeth Phoenix, widow of John H. Gilbert, died at her home, 13 North Street, Walton on Thursday, Feb. 3, at the advanced age of 90 years. Despite her age she was active until her last illness which was of but a week's duration. Mrs. Gilbert was born at Margaretville August 1, 1853. The family moved to this vicinity and for 25 years she lived on a farm in the town of Tompkins, coming to Walton 48 years ago. She was a loving mother and not only took good care of her own home and family but was willing to assist others who needed her help in emergencies. She is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Viola Budine and Mrs. Ida Lockwood of Walton, Mrs. Carrie Wright of Franklin Depot, and Mrs. Cora Cole and Miss Minnie Gilbert of Walton; one son, Alfred Gilbert of Walton; one sister, Mrs. Annie Constable of Sidney Center; 31 grandchildren and 41 great-grandchildren. 44. Henry James⁶ Constable (36), born 19 May 1860 in Cleaver, Delaware, NY; died 19 Feb 1945 in Walton, Delaware, NY; buried in Walton Cemetery, Walton, Delaware, NY, son of 88. Peter Constable (20) and 89. Phoebe Lucritia (Reynolds) Constable. He married on 30 Mar 1879 in Cannonsville, Delaware, NY 45. Anna Eldia (Phoenix) Constable, born¹² 17 May 1861 in Middletown, Orange, NY; died 1947, daughter of 90. John Harding Phoenix and 91. Margaret Emily (Munson) Phoenix.

Notes for Henry James Constable (36)

"James" is the correct spelling of Henry's middle name and it is engraved on his tombstone that way.

MARRIAGE: March 30, 1879: "James Constable and Mrs. Anna Phoenix Allen were married in Cannonsville, and instead of taking the customary wedding trip, at once started housekeeping in the little log house on the Constable farm, Loomis brook. The house has long since been replaced by a modern home, and there many of the years of their long married life were spent. They also lived for a time at Third brook and three years ago came to Sidney Center to live with their daughter and family."

60TH ANNIVERSARY: Walton Reporter, 3/31/1939: Thursday, March 30, Mr. and Mrs. James Constable, who live on the Loomis-Northfield road near Loomis, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Budine. Mr. and Mrs. Budine were married at Cannonsville March 30, 1879, by Rev. W.W. Wetmore at the parsonage of his church. Like Abraham Lincoln, they spent their early married life in a log house on the farm belonging to Mr. Constable's father and located about 3.5 miles from Loomis. 10 or 12 years later they built a new house on the same property, remaining there about 10 years. They then moved to the Herman Henderson farm near Loomis, where they resided about 20 years, moving from there to a farm near their present location. Two years later they occupied the place where they now live. Here they have passed the last 17 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Constable are parents of four sons and a daughter, Andrew and Archie Constable of Third brook; Orrin Constable, who lives near Sidney Center; Ethan, who died about five years ago; and Mrs. Herman Budine of Loomis. Two pleasant dispositions is Mrs. Constable's recipe for a long and happy married existence. "Both husband and wife must have pleasant dispositions to live so many years without more than the usual number of quarrels," said Mrs. Constable. "It takes two to make an argument," she says, "and the best way to avoid it is for one to keep smiling when the other is in a quarrelsome mood."

Mr. and Mrs. Constable's birthdays are only two days apart. Mr. Constable is 79 on the 19th of May and Mrs. Constable is 78 on the 17th of May. They have 23 great-grandchildren and 24 grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Constable received a large group of friends, relatives and well-wishers Thursday afternoon at the home of their daughter and son-in-law."

65TH ANNIVERSARY: Walton Reporter, March, 1944, Sidney Center: A family gathering, celebrating the 65th wedding anniversary of Mr. And Mrs. James Constable, was held Thursday at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Budine, with 75 relatives and friends present from Walton, Deposit, Cannonsville, Rockdale, Downsville, and Unadilla. Four generations of the family were represented, Mr. Constable, 86, being the oldest present, and his great grandchild, three months-old Evelyn Ann Yarnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Yarnes, Walton, the youngest.

The couple received many gifts including money, a large bouquet of American Beauty roses, two decorated anniversary cakes, and about 50 cards.

Notes for Anna Eldia Phoenix

Annie Phoenix was married (first) to Grover Allen, Dec. 24, 1875, when she was only 14 years old. He died of diphtheria sometime during the Spring/ Summer/Fall of 1876. Their son, Ethan (Sam), was born on Dec. 24, 1876. Annie returned home with her infant to live with her parents on a farm adjoining the Constable farm in Cleaver, on the Lower Loomis Brook Rd.

Annie and Aaron Phoenix were brother and sister. Kate Jane and Henry Jemes Constable were brother and sister. It was common for a brother and a sister to marry a brother and a sister on a neighboring farm, to help insure the farms would stay in the family.

Annie and Aaron's father was John Harding Phoenix, a Calico Indian during the Delaware County Anti-Rent War in 1845. He's mentioned in Henry Christman's factual account of the event, 'tin Horns and Calico.' He married Margaret Munson on May 13, 1847, after he was released from prison on the Governor's pardon. They lived in Andes before they married then moved to Cleaver where they lived for the remainder of their lives. They are buried in the Carroll Cemetery, Trout Creek. Margaret's maiden name is incorrectly 'davis' on their grave marker.

Annie and "Jim" lived in the house once owned by Ed Bailey, on Upper Loomis Brook Rd. Jim managed the Herm Henderson farm where the Peace Plantation is now located.

MORE: Annie was married, became a mother, and was widowed within one year at age 15! She was married to Grover Allen on December 24, 1875. He died of diphtheria sometime in 1876 before their son, Ethan Allen, was born on December 24, 1876. Her second marriage was to James Henry Constable on March 30, 1879. James Constable's sister Kate Constable married Aaron Phoenix on 25 Feb 1873. Aaron was Annie's brother. Brother and sister married brother and sister.

Notes for William Simpson

BIO AND CENSUS: Just to the north of Sand Hill lay the town of Butternuts. Its name was derived from three butternut trees growing from one stump, which marked the corner of the three towns of Pittsfield, New Lisbon and Butternuts. On the "first Sabbath" of January, 1839, according to records of the Presbyterian Church (formerly First Congregational) in the village of Butternuts (now Gilbertsville), Mary Jane's parents, former Methodists William Simpson and his wife (Lavinia) were received "by examination" into the church. William was baptized that day and four months later, on May 5, 1839, William's two-month-old daughter, Mary Jane Simpson, was also baptized.

1840 US census: lists William Simpson living in Butternut, Delaware County, NY State. With him were two sons and one daughter under 5, and 1 daughter age 5-10. William and his wife were between ages 20-30.

By 1850 they had moved a few miles southeast down Otsdawa Creek's west branch in the town of Otego. In 1850, Living together were: William Simpson (38), Lovinia (39), Jane (11), Harriet (9), Lewis (8) and Helen (6).

By 1855 they had moved again, this time southwest to a 132-acre farm across the Susquehanna River into Delaware County. Sixteen-year-old Mary Jane and her family now lived in Maplefront (now Youngs Station), an area halfway between the villages of Sidney Plains (now Sidney) and Sidney Center. They owned a 132-acre farm near Carrs Creek.

1860 US census: records for 1860 indicate William was a 47 year old farmer with real estate valued at $1500 and personal assets of $176. His tombstone says he was age 81. Still at home on August 10, 1860 were wife Lavinia, age 48; Lewis, age 18; Helen, age 16; and Alvina, age 3.

William's son, Lewis Simpson, died 1 May 1863 from injuries in the Civil War.

Another son, Justus, left home 14 April 1865 [the day Lincoln was shot], for Kankakee, Illinois.

Around 1867, William deserted his wife and moved to Western New York State.

In the 1880 US Census, William Simpson is listed on page 29, Supervisor's Dist. No. 9, Enumeration Dist. No. 162 as living in Campbell, Steuben County, N.Y. He is a W M age 68, living with wife Sarah W F 60, and 2 stepsons: George Grimes (22) and Charles Grimes (17). George "works on farm" and Charles was "at school."

After the death of Lewis's mother Lovinia (nee Youngs, William's first wife) in 1890, William tried to claim his son's military pension. The affidavits describe him as having deserted his Sidney Center, NY family in 1867 and later turning up in Campbell, NY. He was also described as very poor.

"William Simpson---r. 3 farmer" is listed in the 1891 Campbell Directory at <<http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~nysteube/1891/cb.html>>

The 1860 US census lists Sarah Grimes, age 44 as being born about 1816 in New York State. In 1860 she was living in Bradford, Steuben, New York. Her husband was Norman Grimes, 44, and she had a son George, age 2. At the time she had 7 other children: Philander, Mary Jane, Julia, Daniel, Morran, Orrin, & Lucy. Son Charles would not have been born yet.

Notes for Lavinia A. Youngs

The 1870 US census lists Lavinia (not Lovinia) as age 58, living with son George and daughter-in-law Martha at their home in the town of Masonville, Delaware Co., NY. From a letter dated 19 Feb 1890, Sidney Center, NY, written by daughter Allie: "Mother died Saturday evening at half past 7 o'clock and was buried here to the Center yesterday the 18 of Feb." Her tombstone says she died 15 Feb 1890 age 77 years 8 months 1 day. It also says, "Heaven is my home at last."

Children of William Simpson and Lavinia A. Youngs were as follows:

- i Adelia L.⁶ Simpson, born 26 Nov 1830 in Otsego County, NY. She married unknown.
- 32 ii George A.⁶ Simpson¹³, born 25 Oct 1835; died 15 Jun 1919 in Sidney, Delaware, NY. He married on 25 Mar 1862 Martha A. (Youngs) Simpson, born 29 Nov 1835 in Unadilla, Otsego, NY; died Mar 1915 in Sidney Center, Delaware, NY, daughter of Rev. Clement C. Youngs and Maria (Mariah) (Smith) Youngs.
- iii Justus Lewis (Jesse)⁶ Simpson, born¹⁴ 16 May 1837 in Gilbertsville, Otsego, NY; died 2 Jul 1917 in Heppner, Morrow, OR. He married on 22 Dec 1867 in Rogers, Ford, IL Susan Emma (Clemans) Simpson, born 26 Aug 1849 in West Walworth, Wayne, NY; died 1 Apr 1938 in Heppner, Morrow, OR, daughter of Lorenzo D. Clemons and Sarah (Kelly) Clemons. Notes: BIOGRAPHY: All the honor that belongs to the high-minded, public-spirited citizen belongs of right to Justus L. Simpson, of Francesville, Indiana, but it is as a soldier that Mr. Simpson has the strongest claim on the admiration of his fellow citizens. He is not only a soldier, but the grandson of a soldier, and his service in the war of the states in behalf of the Union was so heroic and his sufferings were so great that his military experience was exceptional in many ways. Mr. Simpson was born on a farm near Gilbertsville, Otsego County, New York, May 16, 1837, a son of William and Lovina (Young) Simpson. His father's father did gallant service in the war of 1813-14. Records of other wars in America and in England bear the name of Simpson so prominently that there can be no question that Justus L. Simpson inherited the military instinct and predilection in an unusual degree. August 30, 1862, when he was a little past twenty-five years old, he enlisted at Gilbertsville, New York, as a private in Company G, One Hundred and Fifty-second Regiment, New York Volunteer Infantry, to serve three years or during the war. He served until honorably discharged, February 4, 1865, on account of wounds received in a charge in the battle of Hanover Court House, Virginia. He participated in a charge on the rebel works at the battle of Suffolk, Virginia, and in the Wilderness campaign he was under constant fire for twenty-two days, from May 2 to May 24, 1864. The principal battles of this series were those of the Wilderness, Spotsylvania Court House, North Anna Court House and Hanover Court House. In the last named engagement he was shot, May 24, 1864, under the following interesting circumstances: His regiment was deployed for service on the skirmish line. After twenty-four hours' arduous service it was relieved and sent to the rear among the reserves, but was almost at once called upon to relieve a regiment which had exhausted its ammunition, and took its place on the firing line in the woods, where it was under direct and galling fire in front of the enemy. The soldiers availed themselves of such shelter as trees offered, and Comrade Simpson gained the slight protection of the tree, whose trunk was about six inches in diameter. He was on his knees, loading his musket, when he found that a rebel sharpshooter had him in range. One shot struck the tree directly in front and in range of his forehead, and a second and a third shot narrowly missed him. A lieutenant standing about a rod in his rear cautioned him to look out as a sharpshooter had located him. As many as nine or ten shots came close to him, and soon he was struck, the ball passing through the flesh of the upper part of the left leg, and through the right leg, cutting off the leaders and making a fearful wound. Comrade Simpson attempted to gain the shelter of a large tree a little distance in the rear, but found he could not walk. The lieutenant ordered two men to take him to the shelter of the tree. There he fainted, and, according to his vivid imagination, beautiful flowers, trees and fine white houses appeared to him with remarkable distinctness and minuteness. This pleasing illusion was followed by loud noises and great distress. Still unconscious, he was carried to the rear in a rubber blanket by four comrades, who finally procured a stretcher, and he was taken to the field hospital, about two and a half miles from the place where he was shot. His wound was dressed, and he lay in the hospital until next day, when he was taken to the Potomac River and by steamboat to Washington, where he was placed in the Columbia College Hospital, and remained until about August 20, when he was transferred to Philadelphia and placed in Judicial Square Hospital. Gangrene in his wounds set in soon after, and then he fully expected death from day to day. The physician at Judicial Square Hospital told him he had but one chance for his life, and that was at Turner Lane Hospital. He was so weak that he was removed only with great difficulty, stimulated by four ounces of brandy. Here Dr. King, of Pottsville, Pennsylvania, was his physician. This very skillful surgeon removed the mortified flesh with much difficulty by repeated burnings. The operation was a terrible one, and it is impossible to realize Mr. Simpson's sufferings. The flesh was eaten away until he could have put his hand into the wound. His brother George visited him in September, 1864, and when he first saw him thought he was dead, so deathly was his appearance and so awful his condition of emaciation and weakness as he lay for fresh air under a tent. The patient did not know his brother. Mr. Simpson feels that he owes his life to Dr. King, to the Sanitary Commission, and to benevolent ladies who came every day to visit the sick and bring them flowers and delicacies. Until wounded Comrade Simpson was always an active soldier, and was in all the campaigns, marches, battles and skirmishes in which his regiment took part, and was prompt and cheerful in the discharge of all his duties. He received a severe sunstroke in 1863, and still feels the effects of it. He was then on a forced march, but did not leave his regiment. He left his home in New York State, April 14, 1865 [the day Lincoln was shot], for Illinois, and went directly to Kankakee. After a short visit he went to Iroquois county, Illinois, as a cattle-herder, and remained there one year. As he rode a horse he could do this kind of work, but was very lame, and could not get his heel to the ground for two years after he left the service. For two years afterward he was overseer for the firm of Milk, Bancroft & Serring on a farm of six hundred and fifty acres, all planted in corn. Later, and until 1871, he managed another large farm. Meantime, December 22, 1868, he had married, at Kankakee, Illinois, Susan E. Clemans, a native of Wayne County, New York, and a daughter of Lorenzo and Sarah (Kelly) Clemans. Lorenzo Clemans was born in Wayne County, New York, in a house which had been built in the pioneer days by his father, Dr. Asaph Clemans. Dr. Clemans, whose mother was a sister of General Israel Putnam, of Revolutionary fame, was of Puritan stock and married Orpha Ives, a daughter of Moses Ives, who was a Revolutionary soldier from Connecticut. They had children named Moses, Asaph, Rensselaer, Putney, Nancy, Clarissa, Polly and Susannah. The Doctor, who took his medical degree in Rochester, New York, was in his day a distinguished physician and a man of much property, who acquired a considerable landed estate, most of which is now owned by his descendants. In political faith he was for many years an old-line Whig. He was one of the organizers of the Republican Party and voted for Fremont and for Lincoln. He was an active member of the Methodist church and a class-leader in his organization, and died aged seventy-two, after a busy and useful life. Lorenzo Clemans, son of Asaph Clemans and father of Mrs. Simpson, was born about 1818, and died aged seventy-eight. He was a successful farmer and married Sarah Kelly, a native of Oneida County, New York. The family of Kelly is prominent in New York, especially in Buffalo, and Mrs. Lorenzo Clemans' sister, Mary, married a general of the Confederate army. Mrs. Clemans had two brothers, named Joseph and Ezekiel. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Clemans were named Oscar, Lydia, Orson, Susan E., Ann, Colista, Rensselaer and George. Oscar, who was a member of a New York infantry regiment, died the death of a soldier during the civil war. In 1875 Justus L. Simpson removed, with his wife, to Newton County, Indiana, and managed a cattle ranch for Lemuel Milk, of Kankakee, Illinois, until 1876, when he bought his present farm in Salem Township, which was known as the old Nathaniel Waple farm. He has lived on this place since 1876, and has improved it by drainage and by the erection of new buildings. His residence, in the midst of a beautiful grove, is one of the most tasteful and attractive in this part of the county, and the hospitality dispensed under its roof is as generous as it is spontaneous. To Mr. and Mrs. Simpson have been born five children: Jennie A., Cora M., Romeo, Jessie Ray and Sherrie. Romeo died in infancy; the others survive. Jennie A. and Cora M. became well known school-teachers. The former taught at Francesville and at other points in Pulaski county for nine years and is now the wife of William Bechdolt, of Oregon. Cora M. has had an experience of ten years in the public schools and is now teaching in the high school in Salem Township. She attended the normal school at Valparaiso, Indiana, and Terre Haute state normal. Jessie Ray lives in Oregon, and Sherrie on the home farm. Mrs. Simpson and her daughters are members of the Christian church. Comrade Simpson is a Grand Army man and a good Republican. While a resident of Newton County he served the people of McClellan Township as assessor and as trustee. He is influential in his part of the county, because those who know him have confidence in his integrity and good judgment. HISTORY: (Newton Co., IN Biography: Newton County, McClellan Township. From A History of Warren, Benton, Jasper & Newton Counties, 1883): Justus L. Simpson was born in Otsego County, New York, May 16, 1837. He is one of seven children of William and Lovina A. (Young) Simpson, natives of New York. He received his education in the common schools of his native state. At the age of ten, he was adopted by S. Platt, with whom he lived until twenty-one. He then worked by the month until 1862, when he enlisted in Company G, One Hundred and Fifty-second New York Volunteer Infantry, and served with the regiment until discharged February 24, 1865. He participated in all marches of his regiment, being under Gen. Dix at the siege of Suffolk in the Peninsular campaign. During the New York riots, his regiment was ordered out, after which they were transferred to the Army of the Potomac, under Gen. Grant. He was at the battles of the Wilderness, Spotsylvania Court House, and, while charging the enemy's works at Hanover Court House, received a gunshot wound in the leg, which laid him up eighteen months, and from the effects of which he has never entirely recovered. On December 22, 1868, Justus married, at Kankakee, Illinois, Susan E. Clemans, of Wayne County, New York, the daughter of Lorenzo D. and Sarah (Kelly) Clemens. Four children were born to them, three of whom, Jennie A., Cora M. and Jesse R., survived. Romeo died in infancy. In 1875, Mr. Simpson came to McClellan Township, Newton County, Indiana, where he has since managed a cattle ranch for Lemuel Milk. It consists of 3,000 acres, upon which are several hundred cattle. In politics, Mr. Simpson is Republican, and one of the foremost men of the township.

HEPPNER: (Heppner Herald, May 21, 1915) J.L. Simpson honored on his 78th Birthday. Last Sunday was a happy day for Mr. J.L. Simpson and one which he will remember the rest of his life. On that day was celebrated his 78th birthday and a number of his relatives gathered at the beautiful Simpson home in west Heppner and observed this event in a fitting manner. One of the treats of the day was the three-course dinner which was prepared by his able and loving wife. During the day Mr. and Mrs. Simpson were often called upon to relate stories of their early life and struggles back in their old home in New York and Indiana and it is not amiss here to give a brief account of the lives of these two well known people who have lived in Heppner for the past eight years and who have made a wide circle of friends and have been agents for good in the community. "Mr. Simpson was born in Otsego County, New York, in the year 1837. His father was a soldier in the War of 1812 and the son also served his country during the terrible Civil War and was mustered out in 1865 on account of wounds received in the battle of Hanover Court House, Virginia. After the war he went to Illinois and there met Miss Susan E. Clemans and the two young people were married in the year 1868. Mrs. Simpson's parents were likewise descendants of men and women who had been prominently identified with the early history of this country. In 1875 they moved to Indiana where they lived until they came to Oregon several years ago. For some time they lived at Milton and then came to Heppner. They enjoy excellent health here and have one of the most attractive homes in our city. Among those present at Mr. Simpson's birthday celebration were Mrs. J.M. Moss of Milton, a sister; Mr. and Mrs. William Frazier of Milton, the latter being a niece of Mr. Simpson; Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Bechdolt and two children of Hardman, Mrs. Bechdolt being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson. The Herald joins with their friends in hoping that they will live to enjoy many such events as the one just mentioned." Justus was a member of the N.Y. Volunteer Infantry in the Civil War and was wounded in the battle of Hanover Court House, Virginia. He was mustered out because of his wounds in 1865. He married Susan E. Clemans of the Clemans family of Illinois, Heppner Pioneers in 1868 and moved to Indiana in 1875. He moved to Milton, Oregon in 1905 and to Heppner, Oregon in 1907 where he died July 2, 1917. He was buried in the Heppner cemetery on the 4th of July, 1917 at the age of 80. According to material from the Frazier Farmstead Museum in Milton-Freewater, Oregon, he had 2 daughters and 2 sons. One (unnamed) daughter married W. W. (J.) Bechdolt in Hardman, Oregon (now a ghost town). Daughter Cora May married E.J. Merrill, also from Hardman. Son J.R. (Jessie Ray?) Simpson lived in Monon, Indiana. Son S.A. Simpson (Sherry) lived in Medaryville, Indiana. Justus died a member of the GAR and the Christian Church in Heppner, Oregon. (Heppner Herald, Friday, July 6, 1917) J.L. Simpson, an aged and highly respected resident of Heppner passed away at his home here Monday, July 2, aged 80 years. Deceased was a native of New York state and lived for a time in Indiana before coming to Oregon 12 years ago. The family first settled at Milton, remaining there two years, removing to Heppner ten years ago. He was a veteran of the civil war being a member of the New York Volunteer Infantry. He was an honored member of the G.A.R. and of the Christian church. He is survived by a widow and four children. The children are: Mrs. J. Bechdolt and Mrs. E.J. Merrill, of Hardman, J.R. Simpson, of Monon, Ind., and S.A. Simpson, of Medaryville, Ind. A brother and sister in New York state and a sister at Milton, Oregon, also survive him. Funeral services were held in the Christian church Wednesday July 4, at 9:30 a.m., internment being in Heppner cemetery. CENSUSES: Justus lived in Kankakee County, Illinois 1865 to 1875; Pulaski & Newton Counties, Indiana 1875 to 1904;

Milton, Oregon 1904 to 1906; Heppner, Oregon 1906 to 1917. In 1850, Justus Simpson (14) was living in Butternuts, Otsego, New York with Slawson Platt (56), Minerva Platt (54) and Jane A. Platt (19). 1880 US Census for McClelland Township, Newton County, Indiana lists Justice L. Simpson (44), Susan E. Simpson (32), Jennie A. (11 b. Illinois), Cora Ann (10 b. Illinois), Jessie R. (3 b. Indiana). In 1900 Justus (63) lived in Salem, Pulaski, Indiana with wife Susan E. (50), Cora M. (28), Jessie R. (23) and Sherrie A. (17). By 1910, Justus (72) lived in MT Vernon Precinct, Heppner City, Morrow County, Oregon with Susan (60).

- iv Mary Jane (Jane)⁶ Simpson, born 1 Mar 1839 in Louisville (Morris), Otsego, NY; died 1 Jul 1925 in Milton, Umatilla, Oregon; buried in Mountain View Cemetery, Walla Walla, Walla Walla, WA. She married (1) on 28 Nov 1859 in Unadilla, Otsego, NY James Theodore Beardsley

, born 19 May 1840 in Newtown, Fairfield, CT; died 31 Dec 1878 in Rosalia, Whitman, Wash. Territory; buried in Walla Walla, Walla Walla, WA, son of Zachariah Beardsley and Sally (Hull) Beardsley; (2) on 23 Mar 1882 in Walla Walla, Walla Walla, WA James Thomas Moss, born 9 Mar 1830 in Ray County, MO; died 17 Oct 1892 in Walla Walla, Walla Walla, WA, son of Archibald Perry Moss and Lucy (Boston) Moss. Notes: From a note written by Mary Jane's son, dated July 1, 1925: "Mother died on the 1st of July and we laid her away on the 3rd, in Walla Walla, by the side of my Father." signed, Lewis Theodore Beardsley. CENSUS DATA: Census 1: 1850, NY Otsego Otego Pg 161A(See Father). In 1850, "Jane Simpson" lived in Otego, Otsego County, NY with father William (38), mother Lovina (39), and Helen (6), Lewis (8) and Harriet (9). The town of Butternuts, with which Morris was connected, derives its name from three butternut trees growing from one stump, which marked the corner of the three towns of Pittsfield, New Lisbon and Butternuts. This village was first called Louisville, in honor of Louis, brother of Paschal Franchot; but trouble having been produced by Louisville wishing to be separated from Butternuts, the dispute was finally settled by giving it the name of Morris, in honor of Gen. Jacob Morris. During the decade 1830-1840, Morris passed through its "stone age," according to an article in the Morris Chronicle in 1917. Five large stone buildings were built, including the Gardner hotel (later Morris Inn).

- v Harriet E. (Hatty)⁶ Simpson, born 16 Sep 1841; died in Sidney Center, Delaware, NY. She married Edward Barton. Notes: Separated in 1864? Harriet's first marriage produced one son (Gains?). She had two daughters from her second marriage, Rose Barton and Harriet Barton. Harriet Barton never married.

- vi Lewis L.⁶ Simpson, born 11 Aug 1842 in Unadilla, Otsego, NY; died 1 May 1863 in Unadilla, Otsego, NY. Notes: MILITARY: Lewis L. Simpson joined the Union Army as a Private in Company K, 89th Regiment of New York Volunteers on September 17, 1861 at the Village of Unadilla, in Otsego County, N.Y. Co. K was commanded by Frank Burt. On September 14, 1862 Lewis received a wound in the left knee by a mini ball at the battle of South Mountain in Maryland (Fox's Gap). Because of this wound, Lewis's left leg was amputated just above the knee at the United States Hospital in Maryland, on or about September 17, 1862. On February 5, 1863, Lewis L. Simpson received a Certificate of Disability for Discharge. Five days later, in Washington, D.C., he applied for a Pension. Lewis returned home and died in May 1, 1863. There may have been contributory negligence on his part causing the necessity for a second amputation, and consequently the fatal result. There may have been surgical malpractice in the case. Lewis had never married nor were there any children. He was buried in the Methodist church cemetery in Sand Hill, New York, a tiny settlement near Wells Bridge, New York. Both military and pension records exist for Lewis as his mother later applied for his pension. When she died her estranged husband (William Simpson) also applied.

- vii Helen A.⁶ Simpson, born 18 Feb 1844. Notes: CENSUS: US Federal Census, 1870: Helen Simpson, age 27, is listed as "pauper, idiotic" in Meredith, Delaware County, NY. On <http://www.poorhousestory.com/DELAWARE.htm> Helen Simpson from Sidney is listed on the Delaware County, NY pauper's list for 1877-1883. 1857 POORHOUSE INVESTIGATION: This is a two-story house of wood, very old and dilapidated, thirty by forty feet. Beside this is an asylum twenty-five by thirty feet. Attached is a farm of one hundred and seventy-five acres yielding a revenue of $250.00. The basements are used only for the storage of produce. In the house are twelve rooms heated by stoves and furnaces, destitute of ventilation and with extremely low ceilings. The number of inmates was fifty-eight; twenty-five males and thirty-three females; of these two-thirds are native and one-third foreign born; eleven are under sixteen years of age. The sexes are kept separate. They are under one keeper assisted by his wife. From two to twelve paupers are placed in a single room. The average number of inmates is sixty-five; supported at an average weekly cost of one dollar. The able males are employed on the farm and the women about the house. Once during the year past the supervisors have visited the house. It is supplied with Bibles, and there are occasional religious services; the children are sent to the district school. The superintendent procures supplies for the house, and prescribes rules and regulations concerning government and system of diet. He also binds out the children and exercises the power of discharging lunatics. A physician is employed by the year, who visits the house when called. There are no arrangements for bathing and no water for the house except what is drawn from the river. They have a well, which is now (August 16,) dry. During the year have occurred seven deaths. Of the inmates, thirteen are lunatics; three males, ten females, all except one are paupers. For the reception of lunatics is erected another and separate building, in size twenty-five by thirty feet. In this are fourteen cells, close and without means of light or ventilation, except by a small diamond hole in the door. The inmates sleep on straw changed once a week. Two are confined in these cells the whole time and all at night. They have no special medical or other attendance. Sometimes they are restrained by handcuffs. The keeper reports two as improved and three cured during the year; but the committee fails to discover how improvement or cures can be effected with the facilities here offered. Eight of the paupers are idiots; five males, three females. There is one deaf and dumb.

Notes for Moses (Bodine) Budine

NOTES TAKEN BY ROBERT E. BUDINE, OMAHA, NEBRASKA:

Moses Budine 1806 -1893 was the second son of Jacob Bodine (Jr.) and Hilletjie Clover. Jacob Bodine born about 1770 was the son of Jacob Bodine (Sr.) and Elizabeth Newkirk. (The Jr. and Sr. designations are presumptions at this point.) As of May 1998 we had not positively determined how or when the spelling of Moses' last name was changed from Bodine to Budine. There is a possibility the change occurred during a census and was never corrected for spelling nor pronunciation. Another and more interesting possibility, handed down through the Herman Budine branch (Bruce), is that Moses, aunt became angry with the rest of the family and had his last name legally changed. Moses Budine died in Walton, NY Dec 14, 1893 at age 87 of bronchial consumption (old age). He is buried in Walton Cemetery in the lower section back of the Asa Budine lot.

CENSUSES:

1810 Census: He's probably one of three males under 10 in the 1810 Delaware Co., NY Census.

1850 Census: Moses and Catherine had 6 sons and 5 daughters all living in their household at Andes, NY where they had moved in 1849. Catherine and Moses were cousins. In the 1850 Census, Moses was spelled "Meosis." In an 1855 Census his last name was spelled "Bodine."

1855 NY State Census: Moses and family are listed as living in Andes, District 1, family 43. Mrs. Robert Burghart could find no record of wife Catherine's death.

1880 Census: In Hancock, Delaware Co., NY, there is a Moses (73), Alvira (44), Edd (19), and John Bodine (40) in one house.

Notes for Alvira ?

In the 1880 Census of Hancock, Delaware Co., NY, there is a Moses (73), Alvira (44), Edd (19), and John Bodine (40) in one house. In the 1900 Census of Hancock, Alvira is listed as John's stepmother. Alvira must have married Moses, John's father, when she was relatively young as compared to Moses. Here we see the name going back and forth between Budine and Bodine. This would lend credence to the idea that the name Budine may have started out as Bodine.

Children of Moses (Bodine) Budine and Catherine Weaver were as follows:

- i Stephen⁶ Budine, born¹⁹ 1829; died 10 Apr 1906 in Downsville, Delaware, NY; buried Paige Cemetery in Downsville, NY. He married (1) bef 1853 Sarah Jane (Sprague) Budine

- ii Cynthia⁶ Budine, born²⁰ 1831 in Andes, Delaware, NY; died 1 May 1859 in Osceola, Stark, IL. She married John S. Booth, born 24 Jul 1833; died 8 Mar 1899. Notes: John Booth's pension papers say Cynthia died on April 1, 1860. (Ref.: Nicholas Booth, Dr. 3641 Newcastle Creek Dr., Jacksonville, FL 32277.)
 - iii William Herman⁶ Budine, born²¹ 1832 in Delaware County, NY. He married Margaret (Thomson) Budine. Notes: CENSUSES: William is in the 1850 Census of Andes, Delaware County, New York, p. 491. He may have married a Margaret Thomson or Thompson. This William's brother, Stephen, had a son named William Herman Budine who married the Thomson girl. Her name might also have been Elizabeth. This may be the William Budine found in the 1880 Census of Osceola, Stark Co., IL., listed as: William, 46, NY, NY, NY.  - iv Elizabeth⁶ Budine, born²² 1833 in Andes, Delaware, NY; died 1 Apr 1872 in Brownsville, Nemaha, NE. She married John S. Booth, born 24 Jul 1833; died 8 Mar 1899.
 - v Marcus⁶ Budine, born²³ 1834 in Delaware County, NY; died 31 Mar 1904 in Walton, Delaware, NY. He married Isabelle ("Bella") (McAdams) Budine, born²⁴ 1851 in NY. Notes: Marcus' last name is written as "Bodine" in the 1880 Census of Walton, New York (page 28 dwelling 249 family 257). He is 49. Isabelle is 29. And William is 15. Marcus is a farmer. All were born NY, including parents of Marcus and Isabelle. She is only 29 and son William is 15.
 - vi Mary Jane⁶ Budine, born²⁵ 6 Mar 1837 in Delaware County, NY; died²⁶ 1909; buried²⁷ in Walton, Delaware, NY. She married²⁸ on 19 May 1864 in Hamden, Delaware, NY Harvey Beagle, born 1841; died 2 Apr 1918 in Walton, Delaware, NY, son of John Beagle and Margaret (Rifenburg) Beagle. Notes: Mary Jane's name in the marriage records at the Delaware Co., NY GenWeb site was Jane Bodine, but her name in the obituary for her son Silas was Mary Budine.
 - vii Peter Martin⁶ Budine, born²⁹ 9 Oct 1838 in Middletown, Orange, New York; died³⁰ 24 Jan 1904 in Windsor, Broome, New York. He married abt 1862 Hannah Ann (Atwell) Budine, born Oct 1839 in Windsor, Broome, NY; died 7 Mar 1926. Notes: Martin and Hannah moved to Windsor, NY in the late 1860s. They had four children according to Darci Randall Ridolfi. However she identified only Moses, the eldest, Phoebe as second child (Darci's great-grandmother), and Charles as the youngest child. Birth and death dates probably came from his tombstone. He is listed as Martin Budine in the 1880 Census of Windsor, Broome Co., NY.
 - viii John⁶ Budine, born³¹ 1839 in Middletown, Orange, NY; died 16 Jul 1910 in Walton, Delaware, NY.

He is 26 and married. That could very well be this John Bodine. He is a farmer and head of a household in the 1865 info.

ix Sarah⁶ Budine, born³³ 14 Sep 1839 in Andes, Delaware, NY; died 10 Jan 1872. She married William Eaton. Notes: Sarah was born 1841 according to 1855 census but according to marriage record was born 14 Sep 1839 at Andes, NY.

40 x Asa⁶ Budine, born³⁴ May 1840 in Middletown, Orange, NY; died³⁵ 6 Jul 1913 in Walton, Delaware, NY; buried in Walton Cemetery, Walton, Delaware, NY. He married (1)³⁶ on 19 Feb 1863 in Walton, Delaware, NY Mary Jane (Beagle) Budine, born 29 Mar 1844 in Middletown, Orange, NY; died 12 Aug 1889 in Walton, Delaware, NY, daughter of John Beagle and Margaret (Rifenburg) Beagle; (2)³⁷ on 18 Nov 1890 in Prob. xi Esther Ann⁶ Budine, born³⁹ abt 1848; died bef 1855. Notes: Mrs. Robert Burghart states "Must have died very young as no further record on her."

Children of Moses (Bodine) Budine and Alvira ? were as follows:

i Edward (Eddie) A.⁶ Budine, born^{40, 41} abt 1861 in PA. Notes: 1880 Census, Hancock, Delaware Co., NY - age 19, PA, NY, NY. EDWARD's mother does not appear to be Catherine Weaver. She would have been pretty old by the time he was born (abt 53), but his mother does not appear to have been Alvina since EDWARD's mother is listed as born in NY in the 1880 Census of Hancock, Delaware Co., NY. In that same household was Alvina who is listed as born in PA. Maybe Moses had another wife in between Catherine and Alvira or Alvina was EDWARD's step-mother. Jean Booth: Moses Budine (b 14 Aug 1806) m Mrs Alvina Robbins 29 Mar 1865, Del Co NY. 2 Robin children; EDWARD was 4 in 1865 census and thereafter he was EDWARD Budine in 1870 1nd 1880 census (other child not identified). Jean Booth: Re: Moses Budine - EDWARD Budine. In the 1865 census, EDWARD is listed as EDWARD Robbins, 4, making him b abt 1861. In 1861, Catherine Weaver was abt 52 which would probably preclude her being the mother of EDWARD. Since EDWARD was called Robbins, and Peter Martin was not married till 1863, it is likely that he was a Robbins. In the 1870 and 1880 census, EDWARD is called Budine, though we have never seen any legal adoptions. Alvina was listed as born in PA as was EDWARD in the 1880 census. A brother of John S. Booth, Erastus, married a Philena Robbins 25 Jan 1854 in Sherbourne, NY. There were 3 children, none of whom survived to adulthood. Erastus was killed in LA at Cox's plantation during the Civil War. I have no other info on Philena (she did receive a pension) nor on Alvina as to whether or not they could have been sisters-in law..

semi-manorial system of land tenures in New York state. It began in Albany in 1839 and spread throughout the central part of the state. In the 17th century the Dutch and the English had granted large tracts of public land to the Van Rensselaer, Livingston, and other families. The land had then been leased to tenant farmers, who paid annual rents and taxes, owed feudal obligations, and had no rights to mines or mill sites. This system continued well into the 19th century, but, by the 1830's, Hudson Valley farmers believed that the leaseholds were a direct violation of the Declaration of Independence. It was time, they felt, to abolish slavery, promote temperance, and end an economic system that relegated them to being semi-serfs.

The event that catalyzed the anti-rent agitation was the death of Stephen Van Rensselaer, the landlord of a large estate in Albany and Rensselaer counties. His will instructed his two heirs to collect $400,000 in back rent in order to balance outstanding debts, but their attempts to obey the injunction met with resistance and promoted similar demonstrations on neighboring estates. The anti-renters, dressed as Indians, resisted state militia units and tarred and feathered hostile sheriffs. A high pitch of violence was reached on August 7, 1845, when Deputy Sheriff Osman Steele was killed in Delaware County. Governor Silas Wright declared a state of insurrection. More than 50 men were tried and convicted, and two of them received life sentences for their actions.

The campaign of violence had failed, but the anti-rent movement was not ended. Both the Whigs and the Democrats recognized the value of farmer support. In June 1846 the state constitutional convention, meeting in Albany, abolished manorial obligations and limited leases to 12 years. In the subsequent gubernatorial election, Whig candidate John Young, with anti-rent endorsements, defeated incumbent Wright. Young redeemed his campaign promises, pardoning the participants in the Steele murder and directing his attorney general to institute proceedings against defective titles. The great estates were being gradually divided, and the ballot box, not tar and feathers, led to the anti-rent victory.

James Fenimore Cooper described incidents in the anti-rent movement from a conservative position in "The Littlepage Manuscripts", a trilogy consisting of the novels "Satanstoe" (1845), "The Chainbearer" (1845), and "The Redskins" (1846).

OBITUARY: Walton Reporter, Dec 1908: Was in Anti-Rent War and Later Fought for the Union in Civil War--John Phoenix Dies at Ripe Age of 90 Years. John Phoenix died at his home at Cleaver Dec. 19th, in his 90th year. Deceased was born at Cabin Hill July 27, 1819, town of Andes, where his father, one of the early settlers of the county, had moved to as early as 1794 and settled on a farm. He grew up with the county and was a rugged, healthy man up to a few weeks before his death. He participated in the anti-rent riots during the early 40's and was one of the band who were brought to Delhi jail for the shooting of Deputy Sheriff Osmond Steel and with the rest of the party was confined for a time [in Dannemora State Prison] and afterwards pardoned by Gov. Young. Shortly after being pardoned he married Margaret Munson, who died 9 years ago. From that union he leaves behind him to mourn his loss 4 children, 28 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren; a record to be proud of as a sturdy pioneer of Delaware county. On September 2, 1864, he enlisted as a Union private in the Civil War, being a member of Co. G, 144th N.Y.V.I., and was discharged 9 months and 23 days later on June 25, 1865 with chronic diarrhea. Shortly after the war or in 1870, he moved to the farm at Cleaver, (P.O. address, Loomis) then known as Loomis brook where he died. He was a hard working, industrious man and with his noble wife soon cleared up the place and had it one of the best paying farms in the valley. Born at a time when schools were few and land must be cleared, he did not have the advantages of an education but made sure his children should. He could neither read or write.

Since the death of his wife his son Aaron and wife have tenderly cared for him. The funeral was held at his late residence Tuesday, the 22nd, at 11 a.m., conducted by the Rev. Gritman of Cannonsville. Interment in the family plot at Trout Creek cemetery. The children are Aaron, at home; Hannah, wife of John Gilbert; Estelle, wife of Aaron Franks; Annie, wife of James Constable. Cause of death was old age and an attack of heart trouble.

MISC: According to Marianne (McCaffrey) Greenfield, John was a prisoner in Andersonville during the Civil War and returned home with his hair turned completely white. Lucille Dewey's records indicate that he entered the Civil War Sep 1864 for 1 year as PVT in the 144th NYV. His age was listed as 43 born in Delaware County and married.

Notes for Margaret Emily Munson

OBITUARY: May have been Margaret Davis? Mrs. John Phoenix, who died at her home in Cleaver December 19, was born in Middletown, Delaware county, sixty-nine years ago. Her maiden name was Margaret Munson. She was married to Mr. Phoenix, or "Uncle John" as he is familiarly called, fifty-six years ago, and God's blessings have been upon them all those years. She was ever ready to lend a helping hand to the sick and afflicted, and not a boy or girl under twenty-five years of age for miles around but what were first fondly handled by her with few exceptions. In her girlhood days she waited for her John to return front the anti-rent war and in 1864, with her children around her, she again waited for her John to come home from the war. After the war they removed to Cleaver where she has since resided, surrounded by many friends and no enemies. She was only sick six days and quickly fell asleep without a struggle and without a pain. She leaves besides her husband one son, Aaron, and three daughters, Mrs. John Gilbert, Mrs. James Constable and Mrs. Aaron Franks, and several grandchildren. The funeral was largely attended at her late home on Friday. Rev. Jared Wells, of East Sidney, officiated. Interment at Trout Creek.

Children of John Harding Phoenix and Margaret Emily Munson were as follows:

- i Aaron B.⁶ Phoenix, born 16 Dec 1849 in Middletown, Orange, NY; died 21 Sep 1922 in Cleaver, Delaware, NY. He married Katharine Jane (Constable) Phoenix, born 25 Feb 1852; died 1935, daughter of Peter Constable (20) and Phoebe Lucritia (Reynolds) Constable. Notes: OBITUARY: Walton Reporter, 30 Sep 1922: Aaron Phoenix died at his home at Cleaver Thursday morning, Sept. 21, after a lingering illness of many months from cancer. Mr. Phoenix was born in the town of Middletown 73 years ago and while yet a young man his parents, with their children, moved to the farm at Cleaver, where he died. Here he became acquainted with and afterwards married Kate Constable who lived on an adjoining farm. For some years after marriage he worked out around the neighborhood but some forty years ago he returned to his father's farm, putting his savings into the place, and spent the balance of his life's toil upon that farm. Mr. Phoenix was a tireless worker, a man who knew not the meaning of the word rest. From sun to sun he was everlastingly working and all that time working for the welfare of his family, his only thought; honest, upright and faithful in all his dealings, he was one of the best liked men in that territory of the town of Tompkins. He had a keen interest in everything that went to make the town a success. A Republican in politics, he was no bigot. He could look over the fence and if satisfied he would not hesitate to support the opposition. There was no hypocrisy in his makeup and he was not afraid to express himself freely and never hesitated to ask a question if he did not understand. He was the type of farmer that makes farming worthwhile. He was no dairyman, he was a farmer, and few are the luxuries of today that go on our tables that Aaron Phoenix did not raise on his farm. He never had nor was he ever known to have a poor crop and all that work, all that energy was for the welfare of his family, whom he dearly loved. His home was always open and the latch string always out. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and six children. Thomas at Walton; Nellie, wife of Seymour Shackelton of Cleaver; Gaza, wife of Paul Finch, Beerston road; Georgia, wife of Rev. Curtis Shoup of Callicoon; Colonel on the adjoining farm at Cleaver, and Mrs. Ethel Brundage at home; also two sisters, Mrs. John Gilbert of Bobs brook and Mrs. James Constable of Loomis. The funeral was held at his late residence Monday, conducted by Rev. George Evans, followed by interment in the family plot at Trout Creek. Note: 1880 US Census: Farm laborer Aaron and family resided in township of Tompkins, Delaware County, NY.
- 43 ii Hannah Elizabeth⁶ Phoenix, born 1 Aug 1853 in Margaretville, Delaware, NY; died 3 Feb 1944 in Walton, Delaware, NY. She married John H. Gilbert, born 12 Jan 1850, son of Mr. Gilbert.
- iii Margaret⁶ Phoenix, born 1857 in Middletown, Delaware, NY.

Notes: Annie Phoenix was married (first) to Grover Allen, Dec. 24, 1875, when she was only 14 years old. He died of diphtheria sometime during the Spring/ Summer/Fall of 1876. Their son, Ethan (Sam), was born on Dec. 24, 1876. Annie returned home with her infant to live with her parents on a farm adjoining the Constable farm in Cleaver, on the Lower Loomis Brook Rd. Annie and Aaron Phoenix were brother and sister. Kate Jane and Henry James Constable were brother and sister. It was common for a brother and a sister to marry a brother and a sister on a neighboring farm, to help insure the farms would stay in the family. Annie and Aaron's father was John Harding Phoenix, a Calico Indian during the Delaware County Anti-Rent War in 1845. He's mentioned in Henry Christman's factual account of the event, 'tin Horns and Calico.' He married Margaret Munson on May 13, 1847, after he was released from prison on the Governor's pardon. They lived in Andes before they married then moved to Cleaver where they lived for the remainder of their lives. They are buried in the Carroll Cemetery, Trout Creek. Margaret's maiden name is incorrectly 'davis' on their grave marker. Annie and "Jim" lived in the house once owned by Ed Bailey, on Upper Loomis Brook Rd. Jim managed the Herm Henderson farm where the Peace Plantation is now located. MORE: Annie was married, became a mother, and was widowed within one year at age 15! She was married to Grover Allen on December 24, 1875. He died of diphtheria sometime in 1876 before their son, Ethan Allen, was born on December 24, 1876. Her second marriage was to James Henry Constable on March 30, 1879. James Constable's sister Kate Constable married Aaron Phoenix on 25 Feb 1873. Aaron was Annie's brother. Brother and sister married brother and sister.

Phoebe Lucritia (Reynolds) Constable, born 28 Feb 1825 in Wales, UK, daughter of 178. James Reynolds and 179. Hannah (??) Reynolds.

Notes for Peter Constable (20)

CLEAVER FARM: Marianne McCaffrey Greenfield (Mar 92): As told by my grandfather, Archie Constable, in 1962, this branch of the Constable Family was from Cleaver, Loomis Brook Rd, Town of Tompkins. My mother (Alta McCaffrey) remembers going to Uncle Peter's farm in Cleaver, NY and has pointed out to me where she remembers the farm to be. It is not a town but a collection of houses near Loomis. Peter was a farmer, a Civil War Veteran and Andersonville prison survivor.

CENSUS:

1850 NY Sate census: Peter is listed in Delhi, Delaware, NY as a farmer, 25 years old.

1870 US census: Peter is a farmer with $1000 in real estate and $300 in personal property. He couldn't read or write but could vote.

Notes for Phoebe Lucritia Reynolds

Phoebe was named after her grandmother. Phoebe may be from Wales. She was listed in the Delhi, Delaware, NY 1850 census as 25 years old.

Children of Peter Constable (20) and Phoebe Lucritia Reynolds were as follows:

- i Caroline⁶ Constable, born 11 Jul 1845. Notes: Caroline was listed in the Delhi, Delaware, NY 1850 census as five years old.

ANTI-RENT WAR: From the American Encyclopedia: Anti-rent Movement, a political protest against the semi-manorial system of land tenures in New York state. It began in Albany in 1839 and spread throughout the central part of the state. In the 17th century the Dutch and the English had granted large tracts of public land to the Van Rensselaer, Livingston, and other families. The land had then been leased to tenant farmers, who paid annual rents and taxes, owed feudal obligations, and had no rights to mines or mill sites. This system continued well into the 19th century, but, by the 1830's, Hudson Valley farmers believed that the leaseholds were a direct violation of the Declaration of Independence. It was time, they felt, to abolish slavery, promote temperance, and end an economic system that relegated them to being semi-serfs.

The event that catalyzed the anti-rent agitation was the death of Stephen Van Rensselaer, the landlord of a large estate in Albany and Rensselaer counties. His will instructed his two heirs to collect $400,000 in back rent in order to balance outstanding debts, but their attempts to obey the injunction met with resistance and promoted similar demonstrations on neighboring estates. The anti-renters, dressed as Indians, resisted state militia units and tarred and feathered hostile sheriffs. A high pitch of violence was reached on August 7, 1845, when Deputy Sheriff Osman Steele was killed in Delaware County. Governor Silas Wright declared a state of insurrection. More than 50 men were tried and convicted, and two of them received life sentences for their actions.

The campaign of violence had failed, but the anti-rent movement was not ended. Both the Whigs and the Democrats recognized the value of farmer support. In June 1846 the state constitutional convention, meeting in Albany, abolished manorial obligations and limited leases to 12 years. In the subsequent gubernatorial election, Whig candidate John Young, with anti-rent endorsements, defeated incumbent Wright. Young redeemed his campaign promises, pardoning the participants in the Steele murder and directing his attorney general to institute proceedings against defective titles. The great estates were being gradually divided, and the ballot box, not tar and feathers, led to the anti-rent victory.

James Fenimore Cooper described incidents in the anti-rent movement from a conservative position in "The Littlepage Manuscripts", a trilogy consisting of the novels "Satanstoe" (1845), "The Chainbearer" (1845), and "The Redskins" (1846).

OBITUARY: Walton Reporter, Dec 1908: Was in Anti-Rent War and Later Fought for the Union in Civil War--John Phoenix Dies at Ripe Age of 90 Years. John Phoenix died at his home at Cleaver Dec. 19th, in his 90th year. Deceased was born at Cabin Hill July 27, 1819, town of Andes, where his father, one of the early settlers of the county, had moved to as early as 1794 and settled on a farm. He grew up with the county and was a rugged, healthy man up to a few weeks before his death. He participated in the anti-rent riots during the early 40's and was one of the band who were brought to Delhi jail for the shooting of Deputy Sheriff Osmond Steel and with the rest of the party was confined for a time [in Dannemora State Prison] and afterwards pardoned by Gov. Young. Shortly after being pardoned he married Margaret Munson, who died 9 years ago. From that union he leaves behind him to mourn his loss 4 children, 28 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren; a record to be proud of as a sturdy pioneer of Delaware county. On September 2, 1864, he enlisted as a Union private in the Civil War, being a member of Co. G, 144th N.Y.V.I., and was discharged 9 months and 23 days later on June 25, 1865 with chronic diarrhea. Shortly after the war or in 1870, he moved to the farm at Cleaver, (P.O. address, Loomis) then known as Loomis brook where he died. He was a hard working, industrious man and with his noble wife soon cleared up the place and had it one of the best paying farms in the valley. Born at a time when schools were few and land must be cleared, he did not have the advantages of an education but made sure his children should. He could neither read or write.

Since the death of his wife his son Aaron and wife have tenderly cared for him. The funeral was held at his late residence Tuesday, the 22nd, at 11 a.m., conducted by the Rev. Gritman of Cannonsville. Interment in the family plot at Trout Creek cemetery. The children are Aaron, at home; Hannah, wife of John Gilbert; Estelle, wife of Aaron Franks; Annie, wife of James Constable. Cause of death was old age and an attack of heart trouble.

MISC: According to Marianne (McCaffrey) Greenfield, John was a prisoner in Andersonville during the Civil War and returned home with his hair turned completely white. Lucille Dewey's records indicate that he entered the Civil War Sep 1864 for 1 year as PVT in the 144th NYV. His age was listed as 43 born in Delaware County and married.

Notes for Margaret Emily Munson

OBITUARY: May have been Margaret Davis? Mrs. John Phoenix, who died at her home in Cleaver December 19, was born in Middletown, Delaware county, sixty-nine years ago. Her maiden name was Margaret Munson. She was married to Mr. Phoenix, or "Uncle John" as he is familiarly called, fifty-six years ago, and God's blessings have been upon them all those years. She was ever ready to lend a helping hand to the sick and afflicted, and not a boy or girl under twenty-five years of age for miles around but what were first fondly handled by her with few exceptions. In her girlhood days she waited for her John to return from the anti-rent war and in 1864, with her children around her, she again waited for her John to come home from the war. After the war they removed to Cleaver where she has since resided, surrounded by many friends and no enemies. She was only sick six days and quickly fell asleep without a struggle and without a pain. She leaves besides her husband one son, Aaron, and three daughters, Mrs. John Gilbert, Mrs. James Constable and Mrs. Aaron Franks, and several grandchildren. The funeral was largely attended at her late home on Friday. Rev. Jared Wells, of East Sidney, officiated. Interment at Trout Creek.

- i Aaron B.⁶ Phoenix, born 16 Dec 1849 in Middletown, Orange, NY; died 21 Sep 1922 in Cleaver, Delaware, NY. He married Katharine Jane (Constable) Phoenix, born 25 Feb 1852; died 1935, daughter of Peter Constable (20) and Phoebe Lucritia (Reynolds) Constable. Notes: OBITUARY: Walton Reporter, 30 Sep 1922: Aaron Phoenix died at his home at Cleaver Thursday morning, Sept. 21, after a lingering illness of many months from cancer. Mr. Phoenix was born in the town of Middletown 73 years ago and while yet a young man his parents, with their children, moved to the farm at Cleaver, where he died. Here he became acquainted with and afterwards married Kate Constable who lived on an adjoining farm. For some years after marriage he worked out around the neighborhood but some forty years ago he returned to his father's farm, putting his savings into the place, and spent the balance of his life's toil upon that farm. Mr. Phoenix was a tireless worker, a man who knew not the meaning of the word rest. From sun to sun he was everlastingly working and all that time working for the welfare of his family, his only thought; honest, upright and faithful in all his dealings, he was one of the best liked men in that territory of the town of Tompkins. He had a keen interest in everything that went to make the town a success. A Republican in politics, he was no bigot. He could look over the fence and if satisfied he would not hesitate to support the opposition. There was no hypocrisy in his makeup and he was not afraid to express himself freely and never hesitated to ask a question if he did not understand. He was the type of farmer that makes farming worthwhile. He was no dairyman, he was a farmer, and few are the luxuries of today that go on our tables that Aaron Phoenix did not raise on his farm. He never had nor was he ever known to have a poor crop and all that work, all that energy was for the welfare of his family, whom he dearly loved. His home was always open and the latch string always out. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and six children. Thomas at Walton; Nellie, wife of Seymour Shackelton of Cleaver; Gaza, wife of Paul Finch, Beerston road; Georgia, wife of Rev. Curtis Shoup of Callicoon; Colonel on the adjoining farm at Cleaver, and Mrs. Ethel Brundage at home; also two sisters, Mrs. John Gilbert of Bobs brook and Mrs. James Constable of Loomis. The funeral was held at his late residence Monday, conducted by Rev. George Evans, followed by interment in the family plot at Trout Creek. Note: 1880 US Census: Farm laborer Aaron and family resided in township of Tompkins, Delaware County, NY.
- ii Hannah Elizabeth⁶ Phoenix, born 1 Aug 1853 in Margaretville, Delaware, NY; died 3 Feb 1944 in Walton, Delaware, NY. She married John H. Gilbert, born 12 Jan 1850, son of Mr. Gilbert. Notes: OBITUARY: Walton Reporter, Feb. 1944: Hannah Elizabeth Phoenix, widow of John H. Gilbert, died at her home, 13 North Street, Walton on Thursday, Feb. 3, at the advanced age of 90 years. Despite her age she was active until her last illness which was of but a week's duration. Mrs. Gilbert was born at Margaretville August 1, 1853. The family moved to this vicinity and for 25 years she lived on a farm in the town of Tompkins, coming to Walton 48 years ago. She was a loving mother and not only took good care of her own home and family but was willing to assist others who needed her help in emergencies. She is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Viola Budine and Mrs. Ida Lockwood of Walton, Mrs. Carrie Wright of Franklin Depot, and Mrs. Cora Cole and Miss Minnie Gilbert of Walton; one son, Alfred Gilbert of Walton; one sister, Mrs. Annie Constable of Sidney

Center; 31 grandchildren and 41 great-grandchildren. The funeral was held at Lyon Brothers' funeral parlors in Walton Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Frank Lathom officiated and burial was made in the Walton cemetery.

94. James⁷ Harvey. He married 95. Mary Eliza (Spencer) Harvey.

Notes for James Harvey

James Harvey's father came from Holland (High Dutch descent). His mother married again and was called ⁵²Ibid.

Grandmother Fort by Lucy Jane (Finch) Constable. Grandmother Fort died at age 92 and was alive when Lucy Jane's sister Mary was age two. It is said Grandmother Fort was chased home by a hoop snake once. Before the door on their cabin was made, wolves used to poke their heads under the quilt hung over the opening and were driven away by the family throwing blazing sticks of wood from the fireplace at them. They were afraid of fire. Lucy Jane writes, "Grate Grandmother used to go to meet Grate Grandfather with a stick afire held by tongs when he 'changed work' with other settlers, so Mother told us."

Children of James Harvey and Mary Eliza Spencer were as follows:

Johannes Nicholas Claver and 323. Susannah (Merriday) Claver; (2) Elizabeth (Delamater) Bodine.

Notes for Jacob (Bodyne) Bodine

The assumption is that the Jacob Bodine who married Elizabeth Delameter is the same as the Jacob and Elizabeth Bodine who appear in the 1850 Census of Middletown, Delaware County, New York. That connection is not certain, but it is quite possible.

It is highly likely that this Jacob's parents were Francis Bodine and Margaret Sluyter. They had children baptized at the Kingston DRC (Dutch Reformed Church) in Ulster County, New York between 1768 and 1792. One of those was a Jacob Bodine. He was baptized on January 31, 1774. That date would approximately match the birth dates that this Jacob might have had. This Jacob's birth years according to the censuses he was in, range from 1770 to 1775. Jacob and Elizabeth (Delameter) Bodine had a son, Francis, baptized at the Kingston DRC in 1800.

Although this family often went by the surname Budine, there is some good evidence that this family did sometimes go by the name Bodine. Jacob Budine's son, Moses, was listed as Moses Bodine in the 1880 Census of Hancock, New York. Moses' daughter, Jane, was listed as Jane Bodine in the May 28, 1864 edition of the Delphi Republican newspaper. And Moses' son, Marcus, was listed as Marcus Bodine in the 1880 Census of Walton, New York. Of course, the reporter or transcriber could have just incorrectly spelled their names, but maybe not.

CENSUS DATA:

1820 US Census: Delaware Co., NY shows Jacob residing in Middletown, heading a household with 2 males under 10, 1 male 10-16, 1 male 18-26, 1 male over 45, 1 female under 10, 1 female 10-16, 1 female 26-45 and 1 female 50-60. This census record shows all of them naturalized (info from Terrence K. May's web site at WorldConnect).

1830 US Census: Delaware Co., NY shows Jacob heading a household with 1 male 10-15, 1 male 15-20, 1 male 50-60, 1 female 5-10, 1 female 10-15, 1 female 15-20 and 1 female 50-60. All were shown as foreign born, not naturalized. If accurate, this would place their immigration to America between 1820 and 1825 (info from Terrence K. May's web site at WorldConnect).

1850 US Census, Andes, Delaware Co., NY - age 75. His age probably not exact.

1855 NY Census: Jacob Bodine is 83 (b. 1772).

1860 US Census: Jacob is 90 in Delaware Co., NY (b. 1770).

Notes for John Beagle

MILITARY SERVICE: Revolutionary War between 1775 and 1781.

LETTER FROM JEAN MCCADDIN TO CHRISTINA (?) (JULY 8, 1973):

Mother suspected that someone in the Beagle family might have served in the Revolution, and a friend of mine who belongs to the D.A.R. got me interested in looking into it. Years ago Mother copied some information from the family Bible, but we don't know who has the Bible now. My mother's father was Malvin Beagle, brother of your grandmother, Mary Jane Beagle. Their father was John Beagle, who married Margaret Rifenburg. According to the family Bible, John's father was Moses Beagle, who was born in 1788. I found that there was a John Beagle in the Revolution who had a son named Moses, who was born in 1788. He also had a daughter Mary. Mother's sister, Mary Beagle, was named for your grandmother, Mary Jane Beagle. I believe that the John Beagle who was in the Revolution was our ancestor, but I haven't been able to find proof. I need proof that our great-grandfather, John Beagle, was the son of Moses Beagle.

According to what I have learned, the first John Beagle was born in Holland in 1745. He fought in the Revolution for 7 years, was at the battle of Trenton and at Yorktown when Lord Cornwallis was captured. He then returned to Fishkill, N.Y., where he married Winchie Van Nosedall. They had 10 children, moved to Troy, then to Schoharie. If you have any information about the Beagles, I would be very much interested to learn it.

Moses Beagle married Sally Ann Bice, and they lived for many years in Davenport. If you would like, I'll write you more in another letter, about what I have learned about the first John Beagle. I was born in 1925 in N.Y.C., so we're about the same age

Sincerely yours,
Jean McCaddin

Children of John Beagle and Lavintyea (Winchie) Van Nosedall were as follows:

Catharina (Bosch) Phoenix, born 1 Dec 1753 in Marbletown, Ulster, NY, daughter of 690. Jacobus (Bush) Bosch and 691. Annatjen (Anna) (Merkel) Bosch.

Notes for James Frances Phoenix (or Phenix or Fenix)

James Frances was born in Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, Canada at the time his father was serving in the army at Louisburg Fort against the French. Moved to Ulster New York about 1758.

James Frances was in the Ulster County Militia Third Regiment as an enlisted man during the Revolutionary War. He was eligible for Land Bounty Rights. The Federal Government may have service and pension records. He may also have taken part in the battle of Saratoga because of location.

1790 Federal census: James Frances lived on farm in Town of Middletown, NY. Also listed on Middleton farms are Matthew, William and Jacobus Phoenix (unknown relationships).

Children of James Frances Phoenix (or Phenix or Fenix) and Rachel Iselbrandt were as follows:

- i William^s Phoenix, born 1769.

352. Willem (William)⁹ Constable (11), born⁶⁹ 24 Nov 1762; christened 5 Dec 1762 in Kingston, Ulster, NY; died 1836, son of 704. Willem Constapel (5) and 705. Rachel (Roosa) Constapel. He married in 1785 353. Henrika (Louw) Constable, born in Hurley, Ulster, NY.

Notes for Willem (William) Constable (11)

MARIANNE MCCAFFREY GREENFIELD: The birth records for Cornelius, Petrus and Benjamin are from the Old Dutch Church, Kingston, NY. There are no birth records there for Anthony or Abraham or any daughters. It is my belief that when the Revolutionary War had ended, William and Henrika, with infant Benjamin, moved from Hurley, Ulster County to Milford, Otsego County, New York, probably in 1791. Cornelius and Petrus (Peter) may have died in infancy as there is no further mention of them. There was no vital statistic record keeping mandated in the State of New York until 1883/4. There were no churches to record births, deaths and marriages in the wilderness to which they moved. Many Veterans received "bounty land" from the new American government, in lieu of wages they earned in the Patriot Army. William Constable was listed in the record of the Town of Milford, NY Town Meeting in 1798 as a Pathmaster, or road builder. William, Henrika, Benjamin, Anthony and Abraham moved from Milford to the South half of Lot # 96 of the Rapelje Patent, in what is now the Town of Tompkins, Delaware County, in 1814. Henrika Louw Constable applied for a pension after William died, which is on record at the National Archives, Washington, DC. William was Private in the NYS Troops and was injured in a skirmish between a group of Patriots and a band of Indians and Tories in the dense forest of the Shawngunk Mountains. William and Henrika lived adjacent to Benjamin, Anthony and Abraham in the Town of Tompkins, on the 1820 census.

LUCILLE DEWEY: "William Constable first came to Delaware Co. in the 1820's. He was a Revolutionary war veteran and was granted a pension while living in the Town of Tompkins in 1833. He lived to be very old and died between 90 and 100 years of age sometime after 1840. He moved to Delaware County with his wife, unknown, and his 3 sons, Benjamin, Anthony and Abram. All of the Constables from Delaware Co. are related to these 3 brothers. Unknown are the daughters - who changed their names when they were married."

Children of Willem (William) Constable (11) and Henrika Louw were as follows:

- i Cornelius⁸ Constable (14), born 1785; christened 1 May 1785 in Kingston, Ulster, NY.
- ii Petrus⁸ Constable (15), born 1786; christened 16 Sep 1786 in Kingston, Ulster, NY.
- iii Benjamin⁸ Constable (16), born 1790; christened 13 May 1790 in Kingston, Ulster, NY.
- 176 iv Anthony⁸ Constable (17), born 1792; died 1873. He married Caroline (Quakenbush) Constable (17s), born 1798.
- v Abraham⁸ Constable (18), born 1798; died 1876.

Notes for Jean Bodin

FROM "DAVE'S BODINE GENEALOGY WEB SITE":

This Jean Bodin was born, it is said, in Medis, a village in the Canton of Saujon, District of Saintes, then located in the former French province of Saintonge, on May 9, 1645, based upon "a tradition universal in the family." This "traditional" statement is set forth by Mary Elisabeth Sinnott in her genealogical work, Annals of the Sinnott, Rogers, Coffin, Corlies, Reeves, Bodine and Allied Families (Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott Co., 1905), p. 154. She does not state how this tradition came about. The year 1645 was noted earlier in E. P. Bodine's History of the Branch of the Bodine Family Founded by Cornelius Bodine, (Buffalo, 1897), p. 6 and in Biographical, Genealogical and descriptive History of the First Congressional District of New Jersey (New York: Lewis Publishing Company, 1900), ii, p. 283. The date May 9, 1645 was repeated, subsequent to Sinnott's publication, in Genealogical and Memorial History of the State of New Jersey (Lee, Francis Bazely, New York: Lewis Historical Publishing Company, 1910), iv, p. 1368, all of whom cited no references. No original source for this claim has yet been found. The location of his birth, Medis, appears to have some basis in fact. Upon having fled France, the French authorities noted his escape as "Boudin, fugitif de Medit, Election de Saintes" (Archives Nationales, Paris, TT No. 259).

Jean and Esther Bodin first removed to Soubize, a small village in the Canton of St. Agnant, District of Rochefort-sur-Mer. Accompanied by his wife, Esther, he fled his native country on Saturday, September 13, 1681, a date noted in the financial aid records of the Threadneedle Street Church in London. He arrived in Staten Island on 3 Nov 1677.

The arrival in America of Jean Bodin can be ascertained only by June 19, 1701, when Jean Bodin, as a resident of Middlesex County, in the Province of East Jersey, purchased an 80 acre tract of land on Staten Island, New York from Johannes and Neeltje Messereau. Middlesex County was situated just across Hudson Bay from Staten Island.

It would appear from probate records that Jean Bodin, now better known as John Bodine, died shortly before March 24, 1708. His death likely occurred shortly before January 3, 1708 when his will was noted in New York Calendar of Land Papers, iv (1704-1709), p. 81.

JEAN BOOTH: From data researched and compiled by Jean Booth, Jacksonville, FL (Jan 1984), from Gen & Mem History of NJ, Vol 4, P 1368; and Bodine Family History, p 260-9; and Bodine Family History by Stinnet, p 156:

Jean Bodine was born at Medis, France and removed to Rye, Sussex, England, where he resided for a short time prior to joining his father in Staten Island, New York on 3 Nov 1677. On 11 Jan 1680 in Flatbush, Kings Cnty, NY, He married Maria Crocheron, whose father John Crocheron was among the emigres to Staten Island. Issue: Isaac; Jacob; Peter; Abraham; Vincent. He married second Esther Bridon. Issue: Marianne; John (born Jan 23. 1681); Eleazar; Esther; Frances. Jean's death date is shown as 3 Jun 1707 (but Booth has a note that it may have been in 1694).

Notes for Jean Bodin

BOWDOIN COLLEGE: The following information is from a "Historical and Biographical Sketch of the Bowden, Bodine, Beaudoin, (Boden, Bodin, Bowdoin) Family," available at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine. (George J. Mitchell Department of Special Collections & Archives).

The surnames Bowden, Bodine, Beaudoin including their many variations in spelling (Boden, Bodin, Bowdoin, etc.) are derived from the Baptismal Form meaning, "The Son of Baldwin". Another source states that the derivation is from a local name meanng "of Bowden", a parish in East Cheshire, England. Popularly and under French influence, the above surnames have been passed down to the present day. Changes of spelling of the surname even by members of the same family have been common. Consequently, the ancestor of a present day Boden might have spelled his name Bodine or Beaudoin. The Bodines (Bowdens) of New York, New Jersey, and of America have their origin in the Family of Le Boudin or De Boudain and the antiquity of the surname is attested by the French Charters of the twelfth Century. The family, Le Boudin was settled in Cambray, France, originally a district in the Low Countries as early as 1126.

Jean Bodine of the Cambray Family removed from Medis, in the Province of Saintonge, France to Holland and England, prior to emigrating to New York. He was a French Huguenot and was forced to flee France at this period of religious persecutions. He settled at Staten Island, at which place he had a survey of land April 1, 1686. Nothing is known of his wife or other children. Issue: Jean
